PYTHIANS HAD A BIG YEAR

George L. Wright, Harry C. Boardman and Others Made Things Lively for the Lodge.

Dirigo Lodge, No. 249, Knights of Pythias, has just passed through the most prosperous and progressive season that it has enjoyed in the last twenty years. That was the statement made at the regular meeting last evening, just before the new staff of officers were officially installed. And the credit for the success is due to the efforts of the active committee, under the active chairmanship of Harry C. Boardman, of the New York Telephone Company. Every week since the fall season opened in September, this committee has favored the members with a line of entertainments and lectures that have been both instructive and educational, with buffet lunches as a side feature, and the results have been largely attended seasons and a greatly increased membership, with a large waiting list. George L. Wright, the retiring chancellor commander also deserves a large share of the glory, for he was constantly working for the advancement of the order, both in and out of the lodge rooms. He received hearty co-operation from Vice-Chancellor Vickers, Master of Work Baker and the other officers.

The installation of the incoming officers was in charge of B. H. Billington, Deputy Grand Chancellor and staff, of Syracuse, N. Y., and they performed the work very appropriately. Thomas J. Vickers, the new chancellor commander, gives every indication of being able to continue the good work and he will have the united support of all the members. The officer who were installed are Frank Matoli, vice-chancellor; Samuel Coon Garlock, prelate; George E. Wright, M. of P. M. S. Hamner, M. of Ex.; J. Hilber, M. of W.; George Heron, K. of R. and S. H. Claire Davidson, M. A. A. J. Edward Campbell, L. G.; Irving Hochstein, O. G.

Deputy Billington congratulated the lodge on the selection of so many young men to hold its destinies and other remarks were made by John Gaffney, John Givens and Paul Brunich, of Syracuse City Lodge; and Dr. Philip, William Mitchell, W. A. Boardman, of Prospect Home Lodge, also of Syracuse. A delegation of eight from Syracuse were in attendance. Another of those delightful spreads, served as only Eddie Audin can, was enjoyed by all.

J. Hilbert Baker, who had been filling the chancellor's station for the last month, performed his duties in a way satisfactory to all. The lodge is making arrangements to hold a banquet on the evening of February 19th to commemorate another anniversary of the lodge, which will be held as yet has not been decided upon.

It was also decided to increase the initiation fee to twenty dollars, beginning April 1st, and a reception to all the new members afflicting with the two degree January 1st, 1920, will take place on January 25th. The rank of a quire will be conferred next Tuesday evening upon a class.

WANTS A RAISE.

Dr. Mansfield After Increase to $2,000 a Year.

At the next meeting of the Board of Health, Dr. James C. Mansfield, city health officer, will ask an increase in salary from $1,500 to $2,000 a year. Dr. Mansfield announced his intention at the last meeting, but at the request of several of the members decided to defer action until next month.

Daughters of St. George.

The Daughters of St. George had a social evening at the home of Mrs. May Price. Music was furnished by Mrs. Deane, after which light refreshments were served and a general good time enjoyed. Next Thursday evening Mrs. Foster will entertain the order. Members are requested to remember the lodge meeting on Thursday.

Elks After Members.

The Elks at their meeting tonight will make plans for a membership campaign and may decide to raise their dues.

New York State Bankers' Association Announces Many Awards to be Given at the State Fair.

The New York State Bankers' Association, for a number of years, has actively co-operated with the New York State College of Agriculture at Ithaca in stimulating the interest of the boys and girls in junior project work in calf, pig and sheep clubs, garden and home economic projects. And the association, through the generosity of a number of its member residents, is offering prizes to the boys and girls doing the best work in the various projects to be awarded at the end of the New York State fair, which will be held in Syracuse next fall. The prizes will be exhibited in connection with the exhibits of boys and girls from the various counties in the State where clubs are organized.

President Charles H. Sabu, of the Prudential Trust Company, of New York, offers a purebred Holstein cow, which will be awarded to the county in which the best work is done by boys and girls.

President John L. Gregory, of the Central Bank of Rochester, offers $25 to be divided into five prizes of $5 each to defray the expenses of boys and girls on farms who have done good work along junior project lines, attending Farmers Week, held in February at New York State College of Agriculture, Ithaca.

President Oliver Hunkle, of the People's National Bank, of Housick, offers a purebred Berkshire pig and two girls as a prize to be awarded to boys and girls who have done exceptional work along junior project lines.

President D. Irving Mead, of the Association, offers a purebred Shropshire ram and two ewes to be awarded to boys and girls who have been successful in their work.

Mrs. S. G. H. Turner, of Elmira, wife of the vice-president of the association, offers to the girl on the farm who does the best home economic project work, a flock of fifteen purebred White Leghorn hens and roosters.

The boys and girls in the rural schools of the State are urged to call on the local bankers and secure information regarding the organization of the various kinds of clubs and the prizes to be awarded. They are to operate in this endeavor to improve and increase farm production. This will also result in helping to do away with the large number of scrub cattle on farms.

SUMMER SCHOOL AT THE NORMAL

Governor Retains Appropriation to Cover Expenses—Also Approves $3,500 Item for Vocational Work

In signing the State budget yesterday, Governor Smith retained items that insure another Summer school at the Oswego Normal this year, and increased efficiency for the industrial teachers' training department of the Oswego Normal.

The budget asked for an increase of $20,000 for Summer sessions at the Normal school. "It is necessary to provide additional teachers in this extension work," the Governor says, "and the number of students availing themselves of the opportunity for Summer courses far exceeds the provisions made by the last Legislature. The increase for the State College for Teachers and Normal schools is $102,038," the Governor continues. "This includes an increase in personal service of $61,700 to meet the provisions of Chapter 638 of the laws of 1918, and an increase under maintenance and operation of $40,338 for the proper upkeep of the normal schools of the State, the largest item being $9,500 for equipment and supplies of an additional building at the Genesee Normal school, and $3,890 for equipment for the industrial teachers' training department of the Oswego Normal school."

As usual Oswego is not behind the other cities of the State, and plans have been made for the Eighteenth Amendment Hop at the Pontiac, which bids fair to out-do any affair of its kind held here in some time. Jay Bon-ton's Jazz band has been secured for the occasion, and at twelve midnight of the 15th will sound the death knell and the friends and foes of John Barleycorn will stand in silence while Jack Gilles conducts the funeral ceremonies of J. B. It is expected that there will be many a tear shed by friends of the deceased, although a number of people are hoping that his ghost will come back for a Nile visit now and then.
