MOTHERS OF PUNY CHILDREN

May Find Help in This Letter.

"My little daughter ever since her birth had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worriment. Several months ago I secured a bottle of Vinol and commenced to give it to her. I soon noticed an improvement in her health and appearance. I gave her in all three bottles and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim." J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, ailing children so quickly is because it contains in a delicious combination the two most world-famed tonics—i. e., the strength creating, body building elements of cod liver oil, with all the useless grease eliminated, and tonic iron for the blood added. If you have a weak, puny, ailing child, try Vinol on our offer to return your money if it fails to benefit your little one. Butler Pharmacies, Oswego, N. Y.

P. S. If you have Eczema try our Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

FULTON.

Garrett's Livery Destroyed—Nineteen Horses Burned

FULTON, Jan. 8.—Fire broke out in Garrett Brothers' livery stable about seven o'clock last night, ending in the complete destruction of the building and the loss of nineteen horses housed there, besides many carriages and wagons. The livery was located back of the Lewis House and close to many of the business places of the city. The flames started near the only door to the building, and it was impossible to get inside. The department chopped holes through the roof, and getting several streams on, prevented the serious spread of the fire, which was a difficult one to fight because of the inflammable nature of the contents of the building.

After nearly three hours' work the fire was under control. Six of the horses were owned by Garrett Brothers, the others were boarders. Some of the vehicles were pulled out. It is estimated that the loss on horses will reach $2,000. There was an insurance on the building.

The flames ate through into Pusopure's candystore and Smith's hardware store, which backed against the livery, but the damage to them is not heavy.

A Safe Footbridge Provided.

FULTON, Jan. 8.—Owing to many accidents on the stairways leading to the footbridge at Broadway the Cleveland Construction has put up another which is on the same level with the permanent structure, thus avoiding danger to pedestrians.

PITH OF LAST NIGHT'S NEWS.

Syracuse.—Chief John P. Quigley, of the Fire Department, has asked that his force be increased by twenty men and that two new engine-houses and motor drawn apparatus be provided.

Theresa.—Farmers will receive $1.58 per hundred for milk delivered here in January. The price in December $1 88. The drop of thirty cents was unexpected.

Rome.—An Italian known as Frank Froit was arrested in Utica yesterday for the alleged murder of Salvatore Corello here on Sunday.

New York.—Alleging that her dentist pulled a perfectly sound tooth, following a discussion about an old bill, Mrs. Mary Zegansky sued him for $10,000.

New Brunswick, N. J.—Margaret Mattson, aged three, was strangled to death by the reins of a Christmas hobby horse.

New York.—Saying that her life had been one long headache since her marriage, Mrs. Rae Weisebaum sued for separation as a cure.

Riverhead, N. Y.—Miss Esther Harris, who walked out of jail with the jailer's keys, is barred from returning. Warden Conklin has changed all the locks.

New York.—Thomas Cannon, who received $2 from Frederick Spence for killing Christopher Larsen, was sentenced to twelve years in prison.

South Norwalk, Conn.—One hundred members of the Trolley Men's Union were stricken with ptomaine poisoning after eating a forty-pound turkey.

Hackensack, N. J.—Armed officers guarded the Courthouse in which the new Free Holders' Commission met, fearing the old board would attempt to get the records.

St. Petersburg.—Russian military and naval news by imperial edict, can not now be published until it is a year and a day old.

PULASKI.

Baptist Church Property to be Improved.

PULASKI, Jan. 8.—The Baptist society at a meeting on Monday night authorized the outlay of $2,000 for improvement of the church property.

Simon Carpenter, on the Jefferson road, has secured the contract for crushing the stone to be used in the construction of the State road between Pulaski and Sandy Creek, work on which will be begun early in the Spring.

Bowling Tournament Tomorrow.

There will be a two man tournament at the Lake City bowling alleys tomorrow evening. All of the best men in town have paired up for the occasion and considerable rivalry has sprung up between the pairs.

Sporting Gossip.

Jack Lamon, of Dexter, was too fast for Young Sam Langford in their ten-round bout at Watertown last night and led through the mill. Peter Maloney, of Madison Barracks, had the better of Danny Jones, of Watertown, and Kid Verne, of Watertown, laid down in the third round of his go with Private Horn, of Madison Barracks.

C. K. G. Billings, millionaire turfman, will not sell his great trotter, The Harvester, 2:01, at any price. In Russia last Summer he was offered 175,000 roubles for the horse. He has just now rejected an increased offer of $100,000.

The Phillies are endeavoring to sign up Bill Rixey, the nineteen-year-old brother of Eppa Rixey, an able pitcher of last season. The lad will be used by the University of Virginia this year in the box. Dooin stated today that he had no idea of attempting to play Rixey, junior, this year, but he wanted to get a string on him so that he may be lugged into professional ball about 1915.

Al Palzer, who was beaten by Luther McCarthy on the coast New Year's day, passed through Chicago on his way East and stayed long enough to say that he still thinks he can lick McCarty. He thinks the reports of his defeat were exaggerated. He is going to New York to sign up for a ten-round bout with Jesse Willard or some other heavyweight.

Berlin.—It will cost $85 to "turkey trot," "bunnie hug" and "grizzly bear" in Chemnitz, according to an ordinance passed by the town council.

Paris.—Men's hats in two colors are the latest Paris fresh fad. Brims of one shade and crowns of another are the combinations in black and white, black and brown, green and white, etc.

BANTAM-WEIGHT CHAMPION NEARING FINISH

Johnny Coulon.

After eight years' ring service, little Johnny Coulon, the bantam-weight champion, has reached the staggering stage of his career and it looks to be only a matter of weeks until he will be decorated with an "ex."

Four new dolls are in the running for the title: "Kid" Williams, the hard-hitting Baltimore boy; Eddie Morgan, the British boxer; Charley Ledoux, the Parisian with the funny face, and Eddie Campi, the clever San Francisco lad.

Williams' punch gives him the "ace."

Slim Sallee, Nap Rucker and Rube Marquard, Southpaws, Are Still in Prime Form, However.

Alas, the day of the southpaw pitcher, is waning in major leagues, according to a recent statement of Scout Irwin.

Glancing over the pitchers of the National league, one wouldn't get that impression. Note the trio—Nap Rucker of Brooklyn, Slim Sallee of St. Louis and Rube Marquard of New York. It would be difficult to find a trio of right handers in the same league to beat these port siders.

Slim Sallee.

Marquard was largely responsible for the victory of the Giants in the National league race. His nineteen straight wins were a big help to McGraw. Sallee was the leading twirler of the Cards. When he was in any kind of physical shape he was about the hardest man in the organization to defeat. No one questions the effectiveness of Nap Rucker. He frequently has been referred to as half the Brooklyn team—the other half being Jake Daubert.

How Scott Irwin could get the idea in his head that southpaws are dying off, with such a trio to point to, is indeed difficult to see.

We believe that if Irwin's boss were given his pick of the Cardinal and the Dodger squads the first he would chose would be Messrs. Sallee and Rucker. Then if he were allowed to select from the Giants, Rube Marquad wouldn't be the last in his mind's eye.

Gossip Among Sports

Hughey Jennings had only three players who batted .300 or better last season.

Mr. Ritchie wants reasonable time in which to recover from those fouls before assimilating more such wallops.

The Providence club has sold Catcher Wade Reynolds to Sioux City and Infielder Jimmy Gillespie to Chattanooga.

Robert Hedges, president of the St. Louis Browns, says he is satisfied with George Stovall as manager of his team.

It is reported that John J. McGraw, the Giants' leader, has been given a life contract with the New York Nationals.

Pitcher Walter Leverenz, the youngster Manager Stovall drafted from the Coast league, is being touted as a great find.

Instead of firing all his umpires, Tip O'Neill may sign a few more to keep his Western league magnates within their limitations.

Mathewson's automobile and shooting trips have interfered seriously with his usual winter studies into the science of checkers.

Cincinnati offered Larry McLean to Indianapolis this fall and Mike Kelly turned him down, thus eliminating another source of winter dope.

Danny Moeller, the Senators' young outfielder, says Boston won't repeat in 1913. He looks for the Washington team to put up a better fight.

Making wrestlers go to a decision is about as hard on the referee and faithful scribes who remain to the finish as on the grapplers themselves.

Manager George Stallings, the new leader of the Boston Braves, says he will play Buss at third base next season. This puts Arthur Devlin on the bench.
