DETROIT FREE PRESS HUMOR.

IT ENDS THAT WAY. "Thirty dollars—fifteen dollars for a spring bonnet!"

HE TOOK SOME. "Do you keep coffee here?" he asked, as he entered a Woodward avenue grocery.

HE DREW. "How's trade?" he asked of a dealer on Michigan avenue.

DOUBTFUL. A scissors-grinder was ringing his bell to grind, on Brush street.

SHE DIDN'T GIVE. "Madam," he began as he lifted his hat at the front door.

THE NEW MUSICAL CRITIC. The new musical critic of the Cranberry Clarion was great.

A REMARKABLE VEIN OF NATURAL GAS. For several months drilling has been in progress for natural gas at Hills Station.

THE CROWN OF ENGLAND. I wonder if Albert Edward ever has an opportunity to show his pretty sweet-hearts the costly bauble which he will probably some day wear.

WILKINS WAS FIGHTING. Muscle don't make anybody belligerent. On the contrary, it is a law of nature that the most muscular men are the kindest in disposition.

was something announcing in its cavernous depths. The chiaroscuro of her antique-adagio was complemented perfectly by the middle distance of her adagio-andante, and the two achievements together corroborated through the house with all the grace and witchery of the genuine of astronomical familiarity.

A Negro Camp Meeting. Aunt Thistle, one of the devout worshippers, told us all about the proceedings: "We done hold pray'r meeting from 9 till 12, and den us had silent pray'r."

HE MISSED IT. A woman accompanied by a boy about nine years of age entered a place of business on Grand River street and inquired of the proprietor:

WORDS, WORDS, IDLE WORDS. People love change in everything. This sort of nonsense took with many because they thought it more elegant and stylish.

EMERSON'S FIRST MONEY FOR HIS BOOKS. An interesting bit of literary history has recently come to us from authentic sources.

A Model Fruit House. A Pennsylvania man with a fancy for fruit farming, has built himself a rearing house for fruit, which cost $5,000, and which the Philadelphia Press describes as follows:

THE WONDER OF HEALING! Oatarrh. The Extract is the only specific for this disease. Cold in the head, etc.

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA. No other preparation has cured so many cases of these distressing complaints.

Hemorrhages. Bleeding from the Lungs, Stomach, Nose, or from any cause, is speedily controlled.

Diphtheria and Sore Throat. The Extract is a sure cure. Dole is dangerous.
