

THE BIG NAVAL DISPLAY

New York Views the First Act In Her Columbian Celebration.

THE WAR FLEET AT ANCHOR

All the Cruisers Arrive on Time and the Caravels Safely Riding the Placid Waters of the Hudson—Baiting the New Flag.

NEW YORK, April 26.—New York's greatest naval celebration was begun Tuesday at the twin lighthouses which mark the entrance to her harbor with the hoisting of the Paul Jones flag on the national flagpole at the highlands of the Narrows.

Rain made the outlook a gloomy one, and in consequence the crowd which gathered on the bluff overlooking Sandy Hook and the ocean beyond was not large.

There was plenty of enthusiasm, however, as the naval veterans, Grand Army men and Sons and Daughters of the Revolution formed a majority of the spectators.

The monitor Miantonomoh lay close in shore, ready to take part in the ceremonies.

John Winfield Scott, chairman of the committee on programme, made a short address. He was followed by William O. McDowell, the chairman of the general committee.

We are about to consecrate a liberty pole that has been erected here as the national liberty pole of America by placing upon it, first, the original stars and stripes, the Paul Jones flag of heroic memory—"Old Glory," as the sailors love to call it.

The flag raised. When the Paul Jones flag was run up, the signal officer on the lighthouse tower waved a flag from side to side, and a puff of smoke rose on the starboard quarter of the Miantonomoh, and an instantaneous boom of the monitor's guns had boomed across the water.

The Miantonomoh's salute of 21 guns was answered by a salute from Lighthouse Hill, fired by a detachment of the Third Regiment, N. Y. N. G.

During the ceremonies word was passed around that the fleet of men-of-war had arrived, and attention was directed from the speakers to the base which hung over the ocean.

Loud mouthed cannon boomed a noisy welcome to the crack fighting ships of the world as they steamed slowly up the lower bay and swung into the anchorage just below the Narrows, near Fort Hamilton, Fort Lafayette and Fort Wadsworth.

The old Spanish caravels, counterparts of the little craft which composed the fleet of Columbus, were objects of wonder as they swung at anchor in the lower bay this morning to all persons who saw them.

The Santa Maria, with her blunt prow, high hull and overtopping deck fittings, is the most conspicuous of the ancient craft.

In the order above mentioned they passed into the Hudson river, having been saluted from the different forts in the harbor as they passed in.

The Santa Maria, the model of the flagship of Columbus, is the largest of the three boats. She is 75 feet long and has a displacement of 200 tons.

The Pinta was the first caravel to pass Sandy Hook in tow of the Yantana Isabel. She was six or seven miles in advance of the Santa Maria, Columbus' flagship.

The Nina, the third caravel, plowed along in the wake of the Nueva Espana half an hour later, and all three were comfortably ensconced in Grayson's bay, under the protecting wings of the big men-of-war, awaiting the time to make the start for their reviewing stations in the North river.

Increasing Bitterness Between the Unionists and Irish Nationalists.

BELFAST, April 26.—As to outward appearance everything is quiet, but there is an increase of the bitter feeling between the Unionists and Nationalists.

A WORD TO WOMEN. From One Who Suffered.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., March 18th, 1892. DR. DAVID KENNEDY, Dear Sir:—From a growing girl, I suffered with female trouble or weakness peculiar to my sex.

I doctored with several different physicians, but found no relief. Was so reduced in strength and flesh, that I weighed but 68 lbs. I chanced to learn of the wonderful cures Dr. David Kennedy's Mrs. Carrie Bouton. Favorite Remedy was performing, and tried it. The first bottle produced marked improvement.

After taking five bottles, I was almost a well woman and weighed 121 lbs. "JUST THINK OF IT MY SUFFERING SISTERS," such a gain in weight and better in health than I ever was. It is my desire to tell every woman in the world who suffers from any of the complaints common to our sex, of the benefit and cure to be derived from the use of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Thompson of California to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Brazil; George William Caruth of Arkansas to be minister resident and consular general of the United States to Portugal.

John M. Wiley of New York to be consul of the United States at Bordeaux; Harvey Myers of Kentucky to be a commissioner from Kentucky to World's Columbian commission; J. C. Sanders of Georgia to be an alternate commissioner from Georgia on the World's Columbian commission; Owen T. Rouse of Arizona territory to be associate justice of the supreme court of the territory of Arizona.

John F. McKinney of New Hampshire, nominated to be minister to Colombia, is a native of Ohio, from which state, at the age of 18, he enlisted and served as sergeant of Company B in the Ohio cavalry until 1863.

After the war Mr. McKinney studied for the ministry, graduating in New York in 1870. He removed to New Hampshire in 1873, was defeated for congress as a Democrat in 1884, elected in 1888, defeated again in 1892, but was again successful in 1890 and served through the Fifty-second congress. Mr. McKinney was a candidate on the Democratic ticket for governor of his state last year, but was defeated. He was also prominently mentioned for commissioner of pensions.

Thomas L. Thompson, minister to Brazil, was born at Charleston, W. Va., May 31, 1838; went to California in 1855 and started the Petaluma Journal, the first paper established in Sonoma county; in 1860 purchased the Sonoma Democrat at Santa Rosa, now the center of a great fruit and wine producing region, and has been identified with it as editor and publisher over 30 years.

In 1882 Mr. Thompson was elected secretary of state on the ticket with Governor George Stoneman and before the expiration of his term of four years had to certify to his own election as a member of the Fifty-fifth congress, being the third in line of his family to serve in that capacity—his grandfather in the Seventh, Eighth and Ninth, and his father in the Thirtieth.

Mr. Thompson was defeated for re-election to congress on the ticket with Mr. Cleveland in 1888 and has since taken an active part in the campaign of education by which his district and state were converted to tariff reform. He was a delegate to the Chicago convention and a member of the famous Whittey committee.

John M. Wiley of New York, nominated to be consul to Bordeaux, is a native of Ireland, but came to America when a young boy. He is a wealthy citizen of East Aurora, N. Y., but has recently purchased a fine residence in Buffalo. In 1871-72 he served as a member of the state legislature. Mr. Wiley has represented his district in the state committee for years and in the Fifty-fifth congress was its representative.
