FULTON.

WHERE IS THE CADET?

THE SALVATION ARMY OF FULTON HAS A SENSATION.

Cadet William Stewart jumped the town without giving his future address. A woman figures in the matter—Also a note which it is claimed the cadet wrote—Other Fulton news.

Wonderful Embroideries. Mrs. D. C. Taylor. She has with her some specimens of the wonderful embroidery which has excited the interest of ladies in New York city and throughout the state.

Orphan Asylum Pious Party. The Oswego orphan asylum appeal to the generous public for liberal contributions to their pious party to be given on the 8th of October.

circulation, facts really become converted into fairy tales. The above story is as the captain and a member of the army related it to a Times reporter, and they say that young Stewart probably became discouraged, and for that reason left.

Around Town Notes. FULTON, Oct. 6.—Charles Blaney's "A Boy Wanted," at the Stephens last night, drew a fine house. The whole troupe took well.

The new railroad track has been so far completed and connection with the old main made, that last night the trains were able to pass over on the new main.

In Fulton, Oct. 5th, occurred the death of Marie A. Winner, aged 41 years. Mr. Winner was formerly of Palauki. Funeral arrangements not known.

ward are called upon to support for the office of alderman. The republican made no mistake when they selected Mr. Dufrane as the standard bearer.

Thomas Hennessey, the nominee for alderman in the Fifth ward, is an illustration of the office seeking the man, and the republicans made a wise selection when they placed him in nomination to represent them.

Charles H. Carrier is the nominee for supervisor in the Fifth ward. Mr. Carrier is receiving clerk in the Kingsford foundry, a position that requires education and executive ability to fill.

Ariel J. Murdoch, an old resident of the Sixth ward and a representative citizen, has been placed in nomination for alderman of that ward.

Sidney VanAnken is the Sixth ward republican's choice for supervisor. Mr. VanAnken has for a great many years been an active business man in Oswego.

As a running mate for Mr. Butler David M. Goraline has been named for the office of supervisor in the Second ward. There is not a resident there who does not know "Dave's" Goraline and respect him.

Morrillo J. Rowlington has been selected by the Third ward republicans to represent them in the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Rowlington is a resident of Fourth street.

Frederick A. Glynn has been re-nominated for supervisor in the Third ward. He has ably represented the ward during his present incumbency.

William H. Young is the candidate for re-election as alderman in the Fourth ward. It was a fitting endorsement for services faithfully rendered.

Simon B. Wilcox will represent the Fourth ward in the Board of Supervisors. He is a builder and resides at 91 East Onaida street.

A CARD FROM DR. COX.

Nominated the Wrong Man

The undersigned wishes to state to the democratic county committee, or the committee appointed to fill vacancies, that with all due respect to the delegates of the Oswego county democratic convention, and especially to Mr. Deigan Morrissey, who placed my name in nomination for the office of coroner, that I most respectfully decline the nomination for good and sufficient reasons:

1st. That, I am not a democrat. 2d. That, if I was I would not suffer my name to run on a ticket that would endorse the Chicago platform of 1896.

3d. That, I am out of politics, and am not seeking after office. Thanking you for your kind intentions, I remain as ever Yours with respect, W. H. Cox.

Clam Bake. Weather permitting Dan Dabols promises for to-morrow one of the smallest clam bakes ever held in these parts. The bake will be held at Pleasant View, above Minetto and the bids will be opened at 8 p. m. and 7 p. m.

Mayor's Appointments. Mayor Higgins filed two appointments for election officers this afternoon. James Clifford, who failed to qualify, is appointed to the position of ballot clerk in the Second district of the Second ward, and John S. Heron ballot clerk in the Second district of the Third ward in place of Percy Owen, removed from the city.

Have you earache, toothache, sore throat, pains or swellings of any sort? A few applications of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil will bring relief almost instantly.

Millions of suffering women should know that those painful irregularities peculiar to the sex can be relieved at once with Apolline. Price $1. Druggists.

Sergeant Meek's Victim Will Die. Private Braun, who was shot by Sgt. Meek at Madison barracks, and who suffered an amputation of the leg near the knee as a result of the injury, now lies at the point of death. Monday three inches more of the leg was removed by the surgeons. If Braun lived until last night the leg was to be amputated just above the knee.

Football Game. The initial football game of the season in this city will be played at the Fair grounds Saturday afternoon. It will be between the Oswego eleven recently organized by Manager Sayer and a team from Baldwinville.

The Kennebec (Me) Journal publishes the following as related by a stage driver: "When I came out on my regular trip the other morning," relates the Lee stage driver, "the only passenger I had was an old lady of very demure manners. I was most dead for a smoke, but I had sort of got it into my head that the lady was a religious and fussy party. When we got along a piece, however, I got to fidgeting my tobacco, and, by snuff, I just couldn't resist the temptation! So I turned round to the old lady and asked her if she had any objection to my taking a whiff or two. She straightened up like a monkey on a stick.

"By gosh, young man," she shouted, "you've hit me just where I live! I've been snoring for a smoke all the morning. Gimme a match."

"She pulled out a black T. D., and I tell you mister, me's that old lady made the stage look like a steam engine going up a grade."

"The Deacon's Daugh'er." This great comedy that has an immense run in New York and all the other large cities, will be presented by the pretty and bright comedienne, Miss Lillian Keane, supported by an exceptionally strong company and scenic effects. This play is full of comedy, songs, medleys and dances of the day, and you cannot afford to miss it. Watch for its coming.

"I can't see how any family lives without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. R. Adams, a well known druggist, of Geneva, Ala., in a letter inquiring the price of a dozen bottles, that he might not only have it for use in his own family, but supply it to his neighbors. The reason some people get along without it, is because they do not know its value, and what a vast amount of suffering it will save. Whenever it becomes known and used, it is recognized as a necessity, for it is the only remedy that can always be depended upon for several complaints, both for children and adults. For sale by A. D. McIntyre, C. E. Butler, Stone & Co.

GOSSIP BY THE WAY.

With a "How-do" Edward T. Murray the original "Country Boy" with Charles E. Blaney's "A Boy Wanted" company made his bow in the Trust office. An "Jay" he is a complete success. He looks and acts his part to perfection and in addition to the adroitness nature has given him he has tried his best to improve his appearance. He can assume about as much intelligence in his face as a well educated donkey. He dresses himself to attract attention and succeeds. His coat out on the "snooper" pattern is of light colored checked stuff and his pants of homespun does not meet the tops of the brogan shoes he wears by three inches and conspicuously show a pair of bright woolen stockings. His hair is cut as if a bowl had been used for the pattern and is surmounted by a brown derby hat of a pattern of twenty years ago which is about twice too small.

Mr. Murray is chuck full of wit and humor and it appears to be original. The one advantage he possesses is that the wardrobe he has to carry does not cause the railroad to charge for excessive baggage. His stage and street clothes he carries on his back and he never changes his costume.

He created considerable amusement on the street during the day. Mounted on a bicycle of '94 model, he went through the streets performing tricks and calling crowd together. He boarded a street car on the east side and when it started turned a double somersault and landed in a heap on the pavement. Two confederates picked him up and carried him into an adjoining store, followed by a crowd who thought the "Jay" had injured himself. He waited until the coast was clear and then skipped out.

This is not Murray's first visit to this city. He was here with the Baranoff circus some years ago and drove a white horse. It was his play to attract attention and he drove through the parade at the corner of East Second and Bridge street. Officer Milo was on duty at the corner and promptly attempted to arrest Murray, who, the officer thought, was a drunken farmer and the length which has been on the officer ever since still irritates him.

A freak museum manager wrote to a party in Kentucky making an offer for a rope with which any man had been lynched. The party replied: "We have none on hand now, but have placed your order on file, and you are likely to hear from us soon."

Although it is eighteen years since the first newspaper was published in Japan, there are now 575 daily and weekly newspapers. There are thirty-five law magazines, 111 scientific periodicals, thirty-five medical journals and an equal number of religious newspapers.

A story is told of the late Baron Hirsch that conveys a valuable lesson. After writing a message announcing the gift of a fortune to a school the great millionaire went over the telegram a second time, condensing it so as to save a franc.

A newspaper man in Ohio recently brought suit against forty-three men who would not pay their subscriptions, and obtained a judgment in each claim. Of these twenty-eight made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allows, thus preventing attachment. Then under a decision of the Supreme Court they were arrested for petit larceny and bound over in the sum of $8,000 each. All but six gave bonds; six went to jail. The new Postal law makes it a larceny to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.
