THE SUPREME COURT.

A SENSATIONAL SCENE IN OPEN COURT THIS MORNING.

Jeremiah Hanlon Was the Occasion of It—He Made a Statement Charging Hon. C. N. Bulger with Falsehood and Misrepresentation—The Case Is One of Family Disputes Among the Hanlons.

Jeremiah Hanlon, defendant in an action in the supreme court, this morning in open court, said that C. N. Bulger, attorney for the plaintiff, had "stated a blank set of lies" to the court.

The action which was before the court involved about $150, the cost of a horse and wagon which Mrs. Ellen Hanlon, the plaintiff, and her stepson both claim.

The action which was before the court involved about $150, the cost of a horse and wagon which Mrs. Ellen Hanlon, the plaintiff, and her stepson both claim.

Justice Scribner asked for the details of the action and when informed of the small amount involved requested the attorneys in the matter—Charles N. Bulger and D. P. Lester for the plaintiff and J. B. Higgins and Merrick Stowell for the defendant, to come to some agreement and not take up the time of the court with such a small action.

Mr. Bulger had addressed the court and told of the troubles of this family and how he had labored to effect a settlement and at one time had everything completed when the defendant, Jeremiah Hanlon, came into the room and knocked the whole arrangement sideways.

Justice Scribner told Mr. Hanlon that Mr. Bulger is considered a reputable member of the bar and thought he had done everything in his power to settle the matter out of court and that the defendant misapprehended what Mr. Bulger had stated.

The Village of Oswego Falls was called at noon today. This is a negligence action. The plaintiff claims she was walking along First street in Oswego Falls on March 21, with her sister, Mrs. Ware, when she tripped on a loose board and sustained serious injuries for which she asks, through her attorney, F. G. Spencer, $5,000.

S. E. Mead appears for the defendant.

No. 10—Samuel B. Burdard against Orlando R. Sprague was put over for the term.

At 12:45 Justice Scribner ordered the court to take a recess until Wednesday at 1 o'clock and ordered the clerk to place all the remaining causes to be tried on the day calendar as follows: Nos. 49, 38, 48, 55, 18, 5, 9, 11, 19, 21, 29, 32, 33, 51, 28, 60 and 62.

The grand jury was ready to make a partial report but the court adjourned before they had an opportunity to do so. It is understood several indictments have been found. Among the cases considered was that of John alias "Bar" Holleran, who was arrested for assault in the first degree on John Faherty.

Literary Exercises. The first public literary exercises of the term were held at Normal Hall this morning. The exercises were in charge of Miss Scates, who presided. The program rendered was a very interesting one.

Miss Louise Monger told of "The Early Years of John Brown," Miss Marion Bates of "John Brown in the Adirondacks," Miss Bessie Bloomfield of his work in Kansas, and Miss Edith Myers of the tragedy of Harper's Ferry.

All the papers were carefully prepared and well read. Miss Helen A. Crawford read an admirable sketch of the character of "Oswatimie Brown," in which she pictured very clearly his many noble traits.

"A BUNGLING JOB"

The Attempt of the Palladium to Lead Mayor Higgins with Responsibility for Alleged Delays in Paving West First Street Shown to Be False—Testimony from the Department of Works.

Renominated for a third term after three and a half years' service, the Palladium was constrained to say of John D. Higgins:

"He is unquestionably a strong candidate because he has made a good mayor."

Seeing the danger of certain defeat on any fair presentation of the respective merits of this "unquestionably strong candidate" and its own partisan candidate, the Palladium, from lack of law or weakness at any point in Mr. Higgins' record, is therefore driven to reckless invention in order to prop a falling cause.

Enough false statements are in yesterday's issue alone of that paper, to inflict incalculable damage on its candidate. Its "breaks" will be attended to in the interest of the public good.

To-day the Times will deal with a single assertion of the Bulger organ, namely: its attempt to lead Mayor Higgins with the responsibility for what delay has occurred in completing the mile of asphalt paving put down the present season and now nearly completed.

Delay distinctly chargeable to the street railway company is laid upon Mayor Higgins. To-day a Times reporter called on a democratic and a republican member of the Department of Works to say where responsibility for the alleged delay belonged.

Mr. Saladin, dem., the first seen, unhesitatingly said: "The delay was caused by the Lake Ontario and Riverdale Railway company in not conforming to the terms of the agreement entered into where, by it was to substitute a ninety pound rail for the old 45 pound rail."

"Was this agreement in writing?" "Yes."

"Where is it now?" "I believe with the city attorney."

"When was this agreement made?" "Sometime in the fall or winter of 1896."

"By whom was it signed?" "By George N. Burr, then president of the Lake Ontario & Riverdale Railway company and E. H. Midman, the superintendent. The road was to put in the ninety pound rail when the Department of Works got ready to put in the pavement."

"When the Department of Works did become ready to put down the pavement did the railway company go back on this written agreement?" "They refused at first to carry out the agreement and wanted to use the old rails. The property owners along the street who were to pay for the pavement, were opposed to allowing the railway company to use the old rails and had several meetings, with the Department of Works and after a long, hard struggle, the company finally agreed to put in a ninety pound rail."

"On what ground did the company object to complying with the agreement?" "They said they had no money and that as the road had gone into the hands of a receiver the agreement was null and void."

"When the Warren-Scharf Asphalt company contracted for paving West First street did the Department of Works, at the time, understand that the work in this street was to be completed as soon as possible?" "Yes. The work was to be done without delay. The Department of Works and the Warren-Scharf company expected that the street railway company would be ready with the heavy rails relying upon the agreement made last fall."

"Did the Department of Works do all in its power to hurry up this work?" "Yes."

"What stand did Mayor Higgins take?" "As a member of the Department of Works he acted with the other members in doing everything possible to complete the work at as early a date as possible. The Department of Works has always done as they thought the taxpayers who voted to spend the money for pavements desired, and as a member of the Department of Works, I do not claim any special credit for the department or myself for doing what we were placed here to do."

Commissioner F. O. Clarke when shown Mr. Saladin's interview said: "Mr. Saladin's statement in regard to the work in West First street is correct in every particular. I think the taxpayers and people in general thoroughly understand this matter and I do not think it necessary to enter into a controversy."

Commissioners McCaffrey and Dain are both out of town and could not be seen. Their testimony, doubtless would be to like effect with Messrs. Saladin's and Clarke's. Mayor Higgins did all that a faithful executive could do to complete the work at the earliest possible date.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Black Patti's Troubadours."

The splendid reports of the "Black Patti's Troubadours" and their performances elsewhere, lends the assurance that this worthy company will meet with cordial reception in this city.

In addition to Black Patti, who is a host in herself, there are a number of very clever singers, dancers and comedians among the fifty or more people who comprise the company.

In the performance, which embraces a kaleidoscope of opera, comedy, burlesque and vaudeville, there is not a dull or lagging moment. The company will appear at the Richardson next Monday evening.

Reserved seats can be had at Butler's or Glavin's.

THE CORBETT-FITZSIMMONS FIGHT.

A Veriscope Exhibition at the Richardson on Wednesday and Thursday Evenings of Next Week.

Manager Wallace has been successful in securing the veriscope of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight at Carson. This is the most wonderful piece of scientific mechanism the world has ever witnessed.

The immense amphitheatre in which the contest took place, the thousands of spectators, the seconds, referees, and the two gladiators in life size will be presented, with a faithful reproduction of every motion made during the battle.

Over two thousand five hundred feet of moving canvas is required to reproduce the great fight. As a matter of art alone the exhibition will be well worth witnessing.

Wherever presented the exhibition has been attended by immense crowds. It will be presented at the Richardson on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week. Daily matinees.

KILLED BY TROLLEY.

Prominent Business Man of Watertown and Son-in-Law of Juror in Allen Case.

Nathan Gotham, a prominent business man, 30 years of age, was struck by a wrecker attached to a trolley car near the intersection of Main and Holly streets, Watertown, at 8:15 o'clock last evening and almost instantly killed.

Mr. Gotham was riding upon his wheel in the direction of Brownville at a high speed near the tracks and in the darkness did not notice the wrecker which was pushed by the trolley car until he was struck.

His left arm and leg was crushed and mangled and the top of his head split open so that the brains were scattered about the tracks.

The unfortunate man was a son-in-law of Juror E. B. Rouse of the Allen murder trial. It is probable that Justice Wright may order an adjournment of the trial in order to allow Mr. Rice to attend the funeral.

Few men in the country are better or more favorably known to the drug and medicine trade than Mr. E. J. Schell, buyer in the proprietary medicine department of the Meyer Bros. Drug Co., St. Louis. He says: "My boy came home from school with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain. I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely; all pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time, it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings, and rheumatism, I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." Sold by A. D. McIntyre, C. H. Butler, Stone & Co., druggists.

Members of Oswego Lodge No. 127, F. & A. M., and sister lodges are requested to meet at the lodge room, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock to make arrangements to attend the funeral of Brother V. H.
