THREE RESIDENCES FOR SALE!

First---Near New Normal

Two-story residence and 33 x 100 ft. lot, No. 265 West Schuyler Street, but 100 feet from the new Normal Campus (upon which the state has appropriated $30,000.00 for walks, lawns and flower-beds), and but one block from the new School. Terms, $1,500.

The house has a large cellar with paved bottom, the new sewer goes by the house,—and it contains Parlor, Sitting Room, Hall, Pantry, Kitchen, and three Bedrooms.

If you have children to attend the Normal in September and next winter, this is your chance.

Second---My Residence, 69 W. Third St.

"Just beyond the Park," in a fine residential section. Lot 33 x 100 ft. Fine view of the Park. Surrounded with shade-trees.

The house is unexcelled for family of four to six persons. Has all modern conveniences, including furnace, bath-room, hot water, cold water, cistern, gas, sewer connections, etc., and is in first-class condition.

It has parlor, sitting room, front hall, library, fire-place, dining room, pantry, kitchen, and laundry room on first floor; and four bedrooms and bath-room (all rooms have clothes-presses) upstairs; also double cellar with paved bottom.

It is just the kind of cozy home I desire, and, but for the fact that I need the money from it to use in building on Ontario Heights, I would not part with it.

Third---House and Lot, 135 E. Cayuga St.

HON T. C. SWEET EXPLAINS VOTE

Oswego Assemblyman and the Direct Primary Bill

DESIRED INFORMATION

Mr. Sweet Voted Against the Measure Because He Knew It Would Be Brought Up Again and He Wanted to Get Opinion of Constituents

Assemblyman T. C. Sweet of Phoenix has today given to the Times a transcript of the remarks which he made when called upon to vote on the Sulzer primary bill in the Assembly last Friday. Taken from the minutes it is as follows:

By Mr. Sweet: Mr. Speaker, I desire to be excused from voting and would briefly state my reasons. My county four years ago contained no small amount of Direct Primary sentiment and I supported the Hughes-Hinman-Greene Primary bill in accordance with the resolution adopted in the convention that nominated me. The measure was defeated and in the session of 1911 we were presented with another measure which was enacted into law and has proven very distasteful, not only to the primary advocates in my district but, I believe to all such throughout the entire State, and against which I am happy to say that I voted. Today we are called to vote on a bill introduced only ten days ago and but a few days since we were able to procure a copy of the same. I procured as many copies as possible and sent them out among my constituents and have yet to receive a single reply. This is too short a time, Mr. Speaker, to act on so important a measure and the governor through his interviews with the press has promised that if the bill does not pass this legislature, he will call an extra session for its further consideration. In the interest of my district and that I may correctly represent the will of the majority of my constituents I propose to take advantage of the period of time before the extra session, should the governor call such, to become more familar with the primary sentiment of today in my district. I therefore withdraw my request to be excused and vote in the negative.

FINAL MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUB

Officers Elected and Interesting Papers Were Read

The last meeting of the Woman's club for the season of 1912-13 was held Friday evening, May 2, at the home of Mrs. A. S. Coe, No. 137 East Second street. The following program was given: 1. Roll call, Robert Louis Stevenson, James Matthew Barry. 2. Paper, Scottish school of Painting, Miss Mildred G. King. 3. Topics of the Day, the Club. A distinguished painter, recently deceased, has been credited with the statement that there is no such thing as national art, that one may as well talk of national mathematics. This, like most such sayings, is in a sense true, but misleading. There may be no Scottish art in the abstract, but there has certainly been, and there is today, a Scottish School of Painting. It is only recently that this phrase has had any significance, to the European, or even to the English art public; and though for centuries, there were Scotch painters, and amongst them men of ability and reputation, there was no chool of painting, till Raeburn and Wilkie gave it the characteristics which endure to this day. Miss King gave a fine outline of this work, beginning with George Jamesone (1587-1644), mentioning the most important artists and giving brief descriptions of many of their masterpieces. During the business session which followed the program, the annual reports of the various officers were read, and the annual election of officers took place. The following officers were elected to serve during the coming year: President, Miss Adeline Hinckley; vice-president, Mrs. M. S. Lovell; recording secretary, Mrs. W. J. Blackburn; corresponding secretary, Miss Frances A. Burchard; treasurer, Mrs. Warner Esseltine. After discussing plans for the coming year's work, refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

The Philathea class of the West Baptist church will hold a rummage sale Thursday, May 8, at 55 East 2d street. Goods called for Wednesday. Phone Mrs E. F. Wiltse, 674-W. 2557-5d3t

GIVE GOLDBERG BOUT

But His Battle with Julian Was Pretty Even

According to dispatches from Rochester, Joe Goldberg of that town warped it to one Kid Julian of Syracuse in a stirring ten round engagement at Rochester, last night. A detailed story of the fracas appears to show that the bout was pretty even. Both men were badly punished and it is reported that Julian had Goldberg going in the tenth session. Joe slammed Julian hard enough in the fourth and seventh to make the Italian champion wobble. Each man won three rounds each and the others were fairly even, some fans giving Goldberg the benefit, because he led most frequently.

THE ORPHEUM

The New Home of Feature Motion Pictures

That the Orpheum on Bridge street has met a long felt want among the picture patrons of this city, was again attested to yesterday when at nearly every hour of the nine hours which it was running, every seat was filled. It is large and airy, in fact during these hot days, the coolest spot in town, and the seats are of the latest improved pattern and are certainly comfortable, and all the reels run are only from two to four days released. There was no waits, two machines being in constant action, operated by two skilled licensed operators. The performances are continuous, from two in the afternoon until eleven at night. The famous Hungarian orchestra adds greatly to the success of the new venture for several hours each afternoon and evening, and when they are not furnishing the music one of the city's most popular pianists is at the piano. Four reels will be shown tonight.

At the Richardson

Tonight is the last opportunity to see the pleasing bill of vaudeville and motion pictures at the Richardson theatre: Clifford and Douglass, with their clever singing and eccentric dancing; the Gougets, in their wonderful novelty musical act; and, the talk of the town, the Knickerbocker Quartet, four of the finest singers that have been here this season. The new picturers for tonight will be: "The Veil of Sleep," a thrilling drama; "The Secret Marriage," a very interesting reel; "Seven Years of Bad Luck," "Seeing Double," "Jean and his Family," three of the funniest comedies you ever saw.

Starting Thursday afternoon an entire change of program will take place and the following all star acts will be seen: May Sunderland, a very clever comedienne; Richards, Arthur & Richards, in a bright, lively, snappy, singing and musical offering, and the engagement extraordinary of the Pat Toohey Trio, in a comedy sketch introducing two famous Irish dancers, Tom Connelly and May Toohey, and the world's best Irish piper, Pat Toohey, the only act like it on the American stage today. There are three performances daily, 2:30, 7:15 and 9:00 p. m. Reserved seats are now on sale at the box offic

ANOTHER OLEAN MAN CURED

People From Every Section of New York State Are Enthusiastic Over Dr. Radigan's Rheumatic Remedy

---T. L. Lowe of 314 Main Street, Olean, Says:

"Two years ago I had a very severe attack of rheumatism, which left my joints and muscles so stiff and painful that I could hardly move without suffering great pain. After doctoring for months without results, I decided, as a last resort, to try Dr. Radigan's Rheumatic Remedy, as it was advertised as a cure of rheumatism only and not as a cure-all. After taking a few bottles I noticed that it drove all the uric acid out of my blood, relieved the swelling and inflammation and left me feeling twenty years younger. I heartily recommend Dr. Radigan's Rheumatic Remedy, as it also proved to be a fine tonic, and is absolutely harmless." Sold by all druggists at 50c or three bottles for $1.25. Guaranteed by A. D. McIntyre, druggist.
