

STRIKE ABOUT OVER.

Journeymen and Master Painters Hold a Conference This Afternoon.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Schedule Will Be Signed Provided Bosses Can Designate When Work Will Commence and Men Will Receive 22 1/2 Cents an Hour—Dowdle Signs.

The painters' strike is about at an end. A committee from the Painters' Union met the master painters at Colton's shop this afternoon and after some discussion the bosses decided to pay the men 22 1/2 cents an hour for nine hours' work. This proposition was made with the understanding that the master painters be given the privilege of designating when the men should go to work in the morning.

Resolution Was Adopted.

The master painters adopted the following resolution: Resolved, That the Master Painters' Association of the City of Oswego this day assembled in special session agree to the schedule submitted by Local Union No. 36 provided said Local Union No. 36 enforce strict measures to compel members to strictly live up to their agreement to observe an advance of fifty cents a day for all others than boss painters and see that offenders are properly punished if found guilty.

During the meeting Frank Dowdle signed the schedule. He explained that he had a contract with the State to paint the Armory and the work must be completed within a few days. The master painters readily consented to his signing.

Amberg Painters on Strike. Amberg painters are striking for an eight-hour day and a minimum price of 27 1/2 cents an hour. Paper hangers and all round painters 30 cents an hour. About 125 painters are affected.

Syracuse painters are also having trouble. All the painters and paper hangers in Geneva went on strike this morning demanding 25 cents per day advance in wages.

Carpenters Will Circulate a Schedule among the Bosses.

The members of the local Carpenters' Union held a meeting last night. The attendance was large and a committee was appointed to wait upon the boss carpenters and ask them to sign a schedule increasing wages. THE LATE JOHN CONLIN.

Announcement of His Death a Great Shock to His Friends in Sacket Harbor.

The Sacket Harbor correspondent of the Watertown Times says: The announcement of the death of J. J. Conlin of Oswego was a great shock to the relatives and friends in this vicinity. Mr. Conlin was a former Sacket Harbor boy and had many warm friends. For a number of years he was associated with his father, the late Richard Conlin, in the grocery business and afterwards occupied a position as agent for the old Utica & Black River railroad at the station here. The past 15 years he has been connected with a wholesale fruit business in Oswego. He married Miss Helen Synnolds, of this village, who survives him. Three brothers, H. H. Conlin, of Sacket Harbor; S. P. Conlin, of Watertown, and Richard Conlin, of Buffalo, and two sisters, Mrs. H. H. Gill, of Henderson, and Mrs. H. Hungerford, of Sacket, are also left, and to them all are extended universal expressions of sympathy for "Jack," as he was known to all, had a cheerful word for every one he met.
