Pilgrim Joe's Magic Drafts Bring Reform.

CRIME AND JAILS NO MORE.

An Affliction at Base of the Brain Causes Runaway Husband to Return—Converts Convicts and Makes Wardens Look For Jobs.

By M. QUAD. Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.

IN addition to my several world-wide cure-alls for bodily ailments, any one of which can be had at any respectable drug store, I now announce the greatest discovery of all. It will revolutionize the world.

It will do away with war, wickedness and crime. It will make the world such a good place to live in that butter may go up to 70 cents a pound and there will be no kicking.

It will add millions to the Christian population. It will do away with jails and prisons, and there will be no further need of police.

The new discovery is called Pilgrim Joe's Magic Neck Drafts. You use em on the back of the neck instead of on the soles of the feet. The price is 10 cents each, or three for a quarter. No pills go with them, and you have not got to take a bath before using.

On every package you will find the label. "Entered according to the requirements of the pure food and drug law."

From Mrs. O.G., Boston: "By the use of two of your plasters on the neck of my husband I have completely cured him of the habit of coming home drunk and smashing up the furniture. He is now wearing the third to cure him of being a ward heeler. A wife's blessings on your head."

From Mrs. C. D., Buffalo: "You know what Luke Eric breezes are. They caused my husband to bet on the horses, become profane, rob his employer and deny the Supreme Being. Three of your plasters fixed him. Just drew out all the wickedness, and he is so good that he almost gives me a pain. He is down on the docks as I write, giving Testaments away to longshoremen. Let every wife in this country know what you have."

Convicts For Mission Work. From the warden at Sing Sing: "When told that your Magic Neck Drafts would work a great change in a wicked man I scoffed at the idea. My family doctor insisted so strongly, however, that I made the experiment on ten murderers. The effect was amazing. Only two drafts were used on any of them, and now they are ready to go as missionaries to China. I shall experiment on 200 more the coming week and hope to empty the prison within a month. No human being could have convinced me that you could draw the wickedness out of a man's soul by a plaster on the back of his neck, but my own eyes have seen it done. I shall lose my job, of course. But what is that compared to the reform that must come?"

From J. Duggan, Toledo: "I have been married for forty years to a red-headed woman who bosses the house. No one can conceive of my suffering. Besides bossing she smoked and swore and handled the funds. I induced her to try one of your drafts by telling her it would take the whiskers off her chin. Only one draft, and now she is the humblest cat on the Maumee. I can't get up an argument with her eye after cutting her. The change is absolutely appalling, but the doctor says she will live through it."

From the Detroit chief of police: "The wickedest kid in Detroit is no more. After we had jailed him about forty times, cracked his skull every week or two, fed him on bread and water and given him up as a bad job I thought I would try one of your Magic Neck Drafts. I was laughed at, but we tied the kid hand and foot and put on the draft and chucked him into a cell. In all I have used three drafts, and I am not sending for any more for him. His angel wings are now a foot long and growing every minute. I am preparing to let half the police force go next week and the remainder the week after. We see our flash, old man."

From Mrs. H. Gullen, Baltimore: "Up to three weeks ago my husband had run away no less than thirteen times, leaving me to care for eight small children. Then I bought a package of your drafts, got one on the back of his neck, and lo, the old man sticks at home so tight that he has become a nuisance. I would suggest that you don't make your drafts quite so strong."

Burglar Gives In. From Burglar Bill, Philadelphia: "For twenty years I was a cracksmen. Now and then I killed a man. I swore and drank and gambled, and a more wicked man could not be found in America. While suffering from a gunshot wound inflicted by a cop a pal of mine suggested that I try one of your drafts to relieve headache. I did so, and what is the result? I am no longer Burglar Bill. I am no longer a cracksmen. I am so blamed good that I have got to go to ditch digging for a living. You have knocked me higher than Gildoroy's kite, and I hope you all the bad luck in the world to pay you for it."

From Masco Vitto, a Black Hander: "I write, sir, to tell you that I have been in the bomb and blackmail business for the last ten years. I had just worked up a good thing when a cop caught me and stuck one of your drafts on the back of my neck. In two days I was forlorn—no more bombs, no more blackmail, wickedness all gone, and I am now paying the money back. Sir, you are no friend of mine, but I cannot bomb you in revenge. I can no longer be a friend of mine, but I cannot bomb you in revenge. I can no longer be a friend of mine, but I cannot bomb you in revenge."

WHY SO WEAK? Kidney Trouble May be Sapping Your Life Away. Oswego People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all.

Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Oswego testimony to prove it.

John Cain, No. 131 East Ninth Street, Oswego, N. Y., says: "Ten years ago I had a bad attack of kidney complaint and could hardly attend to my work. There were pains through my loins, especially when I made a sudden movement, and if I caught a cold it settled in my back making my condition worse. I also had considerable trouble from kidney weakness and I noticed that the kidney secretions were filled with sediment. After using various remedies without being helped, I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills, on a friend's suggestion. They did me a world of good and in a short time, I was completely cured. During the years which have since passed, my trouble has not returned."

Warden Loses His Job. From the warden at Auburn: "I am packing up my duds to leave this place. It was only a month ago that I told a friend something would happen to make all the world good and to throw me out of a job, and here she is. Got one of your Magic Drafts on the neck of every blamed convict in the place, and they are so good and humble minded that a baby two years old could manage them. You have struck the greatest thing on earth. I'll have to go to splitting rails, but do you keep it up."

From the president of a trust: "This is to inform you, sir, that I propose to bring suit against you for $500,000. I had just got our trust in shape to squeeze the people out of 200 per cent profit and each one of the board of directors had got his fifth automobile when we were induced to try your Neck Drafts. We were told that they would give us more check. As a matter of fact, they have made us so blamed good and conscientious that we won't make 10 per cent on our investment next year. Only yesterday we voted to reduce the price of shop pegs 5 cents a pound. Hang your old reform! You'll either give us back our nerve or stand a gigantic lawsuit."

Get a draft and put it on. Get one today. Don't wait to fill out a coupon. We are not connected with any mail order business. We teach nothing by mail. We send nothing on ten days' trial. We are connected with no syndicate. Come in with the gang and be good. If the drafts fail to work try an ax.

Real Solitude. Husband—You are quite comfortable, dear? Wife—Yes, love. "The cushions are easy and soft?" "Yes, darling." "You don't feel any jolts?" "No, sweetest." "And there is no draft on my lamb, is there?" "No, my ownest own." "Then change seats with me."—Ideas.

Agonizing. "I suppose ye kin hear me daughter Ellen right across th' hall nowdays," said Finnerty to his next fat neighbor. "She do be takin' argin' lessons, ye know." "Thin, judgin' be th' schrames I hear," said Peeney, "she's bein' forced to take thin against her will."—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.
