THE BREED CIRCULAR.

Judge Stowell Says It Is Not Taken Seriously by Any One.

Republicans throughout the city have received a circular letter from County Clerk Frank M. Breed announcing his candidacy for a renomination to that position. Similar letters are being sent to the Republican electors of the county towns. A copy of the letter is as follows:

OFFICE OF
CLERK OF OSWEGO COUNTY,
OSWEGO, N. Y., Jan. 15th, 1908.

DEAR SIR:--I take this opportunity of informing you that I am a candidate for renomination as County Clerk. It has been the custom in our County for years, as well as the neighboring Counties of Onondaga and Jefferson, to renominate its County officers. The National administration has indicated a similar policy by the reappointment of Mr. J. H. Cooper, its efficient collector of the port, and the Postmasters of the County have been or will be reappointed. My chief opposition emanates from County Judge Stowell who opposes my holding a second term. I respectfully refer you to the time when the Hon. Merrick Stowell was County Clerk, at a time when under the fee system, one year then was as good as the whole term of three years now, and subsequently as District Attorney of the County, he asked and in both instances received a renomination. I submit that in view of the above facts, and that he is now serving his second term of six years each as County Judge, and at present a candidate for the third term, he has no right as the accredited leader of the Republican party of this County to insist that I shall not be nominated a second time to an office whose term is but one-half as long as the one he now seeks for the third time. Permit me to add in conclusion that I am not seeking a life tenure of office, but simply asking for this renomination, a courtesy that has been extended to the other County officers, and in the interest of fair treatment, based upon my loyalty and many years' services to the success of the party and its candidates in the past, I appeal to you for your valuable support. May I have the pleasure of an early reply?

Respectfully Yours,
FRANK M. BREED.

County Judge Stowell when seen to-day with reference to the Breed circular said: "I understand that a few days ago four or five gentlemen got together in a room in this city and like the 'tailors of Tooley Street,' resolved that they were the people and Mr. Breed's letter is a result of their deliberations. Mr. Breed's letter is not taken seriously by anyone and is regarded by the people as a joke or an attempt at one.

The people do not take it any more seriously than they do 'Charlie' Bulger's talks on political matters."

Friends of Judge Stowell say that Mr. Breed's letter is misleading in that it conveys the idea that he has just had the office of County Clerk for one term and nothing else, whereas as a matter of fact he held the position of Division Superintendent of the Oswego Canal for five years at a salary of $1,500 a year. He gave up this position to take the County Clerkship which pays $2,000 a year. They say that Mr. Breed is something of a an officeholder himself.

PULASKI SNOWBOUND.

Storm Begun Sunday Morning Still Raging—Rural Carriers Have Made No Trips This Week.

[Special to the Times.]

PULASKI, Jan. 16. — Wednesday afternoon there was a brief cessation of the snow storm which set in Sunday morning and continued up to that time with scarcely any letup. Throughout Wednesday evening the snow continued to fall and at intervals yesterday there was considerable snow flying in the air. Last evening the storm was resumed and it continued to snow throughout the night. At 5 o'clock this morning the snow was still falling.

There was snow to the right of us; to the left of us; back of us and in front of us. In fact Pulaski is surrounded by huge snow drifts. In Jefferson Avenue, the main thoroughfare of this village, great banks of snow may be seen on either side of the street. At the North end of the avenue some of the drifts are nearly a dozen feet high.

The carriers on the rural free mail delivery routes running from the Pulaski Postoffice have not made their accustomed trips during the past four days, the roads being so badly drifted and filled with snow as to make it an utter impossibility to drive through them. Trains on the R. W. & O. railroad were running with more regularity yesterday than at any time during the week. The storm has been the most severe, as well as prolonged, that has visited Pulaski in many years.

AT THE RICHARDSON.

A Whirlwind of Fun.

"A Breezy Time," which comes to the Richardson Theatre Saturday matinee and evening, might properly be termed a whirlwind of pleasure. It is one of the most effective farce comedies to be found on the road. There is just plot enough to keep people guessing. As to the specialties given by different members of the company, each one of whom is an artist in his or her line, and as to the band and orchestra, it can be safely said that this season will outshine anything ever seen here in the line of music. A feature of the performances will be the high class specialties.

Vogel's Minstrels.

John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels consisting of more than fifty people will be seen at the Richardson, Monday night. A glance at the roster of this organization, together with Vogel's reputation for handling nothing but the best precludes any possibility of an inferior performance, as the Death Defying Cycle Whirl, which has been engaged at the enormous salary of $1,000 per week is alone worthy of one's patronage, as it is the most exciting act ever produced on the stage. The sale opened this afternoon.

"Tom" O'Neill Making a Hit.

"A Night in Chinatown" is being played to large audiences throughout the State by the Dot Carroll Company in which "Tom" O'Neill of this city is playing the part of "Sam Sing." Mr. O'Neill is receiving favorable press mention, among the notices being the following from the Hudson Register:

"Thomas O'Neill in his well known dances, essence of Old Virginia and Mobile buck and wing dancing, is one of the best specialty acts of the company. He is well known here, having formerly traveled with Al. Field's Minstrels."

The company plays in Oswego, May 4, 5, and 6.
