STOCK MARKET.

New York, Jan. 25.—10 A. M.—A moderate degree of strength was shown at the opening of the stock market to-day, but a majority of the advances were confined to small fractions.

New York, Jan. 25—11 A. M.—Steel common was the most prominent feature in the first hour, the stock advancing to 59¾, a new high high record for this movement. At this price a sharp rection set in and all the advance was lost. The rest of the list followed Steel common on both the early upturn and the latter reaction.

Government bonds unchanged; other bonds steady.

NOON—Losses of over a point were sustained in nearly all the leading issues during the last half of the forenoon, when concentrated selling appeared in a number of issues. In the early afternoon a firmer tone prevailed, fractional recoveries being made.

2 P. M.—Moderate pressure continued in evidence in the imp rtant speculative issues during the afternoon, but support was shown in Steel common which was fairly well held.

The stock market closed steady

GOVERNOR MARSHALL

Proposes Laws That Will Force Gamblers Out of Hoosier State.

CHASING OUT THE GAMBLERS

Indiana Governor Favors Laws Which Will Drive Pool Rooms Out of the Hoosier State.

Indianapolis, Jan. 25.—Governor Marshall has caused a bill to be introduced in the legislature to head off Illinois and Kentucky gamblers who have been operating pool rooms at Dearborn park, near Chicago, and Jeffersonville, just across the river from Louisville.

The bill was drawn under the governor's direction and makes the operation of a pool room a felony with punishment from one to eight years confinment in the penitentiary.

The law will also apply to "any person who shall record or register bets or wagers or sell pools on the result of any trial or contest of skill, speed, or power of endurance of man or beast."

An Eviction in the Cloak Department

There are swell garments in our CLOAK DEPARTMENT yet, chic styles that hung fire because we didn't care to force them; they were a credit to the department, and we harbored them for their beauty and the tone they gave to the garment section.

But the end of that has come, HALF PRICE may destroy their exclusiveness, but it can't affect the cloth, they are just as chic, stylish and handsome.

CHILDREN'S CLOAKS—Fifteen garments, ranging in price from $7.50 to $12.50 at ONE-HALF PRICE.

MISSES' and JUNIOR'S GARMENTS—Twenty-two garments, ranging in price from $6 50 to $20.00 at ONE-HALF PRICE.

WOMEN'S CLOAKS—Twenty-six garments, ranging in price from $12.50 to $30.00 at ONE-HALF PRICE.
