SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED—QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

PULASKI.

PULASKI, July 16.—The funeral of Don A. King was held from his late residence on Broad Street, at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. A number of friends and brothers in the legal profession from this and adjoining counties attended.

Several interesting and possibly unlooked for facts may be developed Monday at the coroner's inquest in regard to the manner in which Greene Johnson met his death Wednesday night.—Mrs. Jessie M. Greene, Mrs. D. Hootor and daughter. Rose, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. U. Z. Maltby in Oswego.

Mr. L. R. Muzzy of H land Patent, is in town for a few days.—Mr. and Mrs C B Hibbard are entertaining Mr. Darwin Barrett and little son from Cleveland, Ohio.—Surrogate and Mrs S B. Mead of Fulton were in town yesterday.

Drs. Low, More and Caldwell amputated the right leg of Mr. Adelbert Rose of Port Ontario Wednesday. As the limb was badly diseased as the result of an injury received several years ago, only slight hopes of his recovery are entertained.—A very ingenious and useful device for a bug gy top support has recently been patented by Dr. H. W Caldwell.

REPUBLICANS INACTIVE.

Do Not Seem to Be Excited in Lyons at Near Approach of the District Convention.

LYONS, July 16.—But little activity is noticeable in Republican ranks, although the District Convention has been called for Saturday, July 30th, in this village. In Lyons, Clyde and Newark, where Democrats are holding second class postoffices, there may be some little hustle, but it has not appeared as yet. Between now and January 1, 1899, postmasters will, in all probability, be appointed in these three places. The towns which have already called their caucuses are: Palmyra, Friday evening, July 22d; Sodus, Saturday evening, July 23d; Galen, Saturday afternoon at Clyde.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church at North Rose, has elected as its officers: President, M. E. Wright; First Vice President, Mrs. W.W. Winchell; Second Vice President, Miss Lela Mae Rose; Third Vice President, Mrs. J. Clarence Aldrich; Fourth Vice President, Miss Eunice Mitchell; Secretary, Orrin Scutt; Treasurer, S. H. Lyman.—The marriage of Miss Mary Volz, niece of Mrs. Charles J. Hettler, to John Lederman, will be solemnized Thursday evening next, at the future home of the contracting parties on Shuler Street. The ceremony, which will be private, will be performed by Rev. Ernest Heyd of the Broad Street German Lutheran church.—The family of J. William Hart has removed to St. Catherines, Canada, where Mr. Hart has obtained a situation.

The Board of Directors of the Lyons Milling Company, have elected as the officers of the corporation for the ensuing year: President, Archibald M. Graham of Clyde; Vice-President, Joseph C. Myers of Lyons; Secretary and Treasurer, James A. Keeslar of Clyde; Manager, George H. Shuler of Lyons. A committee composed of Joseph C. Myers, James A. Keeslar and George H.Shuler was appointed to look after having the mill erected at once.

The Baptist Young People's Union of the Baptist church at Rose sent as its delegates to the State convention at Buffalo Miss Nellie Williams, Miss Evaline Osgood, Miss Lulu Wade, Miss Dora Osgood, Miss Edith Converse and Mrs. B. E. Valentine. Rev. A. D. Abrams, the pastor, also attended the convention.—Judgment was docketed by transcript in the County Clerk's office yesterday from New York in favor of John J. Ellis agsinst George B. George B. Greenway for $110.57 damages and costs.—William Edgar Geil, the revivalist, who has been creating considerable excitement in Northern Wayne County, will shortly pay his respects to the towns along the New York Railroad. Lyons is scheduled for a visit the fore part of August.—It is reported that fruit buyers will insist upon growers packing their apples in standard barrels, the dimensions of which are as follows: Head, seventeen one-eighth inches; staves twenty-eight one-fourth inches; not less than sixty-four inches outside circumference.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

SYMPTOMS Moisture; intense itching and stinging most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail at 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. Positively refuse all substitutes.

NOTICE TO DEPOSITORS.

IN recognition of the legal Saturday half holiday, the OSWEGO COUNTY SAVINGS BANK, commencing with July 16, 1898, will close at 12 o'clock M. each Saturday, and will open for business each Monday evening (except holidays) from 7 to 8 o'clock instead of Saturday evening, as has been its rule and practice heretofore.

THE GLOISTEIN CLUB.

THEY GO ON A FISHING TRIP AND RETURN DISGUSTED.

Ex-Mayor Connolly Has a Setback Early in the Day, and Later the Club Sustains a Severe Shock Brought About by Harbor Defenses.

The Gloistein Fishing club held its first outing of the season recently, and as usual was attended with many exasperating mishaps.

The party consisted of 20 persons. Among them were 17 members of the Plattdeutsche Schnetzen corps.

The other three were Pat Connolly, the former mayor of Poverty Hollow; Mike Ryan, the Bowery hotel keeper, and an east side undertaker. Gloistein objected to the undertaker's presence, but was overruled by the others. The objection to the undertaker was founded on the fact that while Gloistein was laid up sick during the past several weeks the undertaker went to Gloistein's hotel each morning and sat at a table most of the day.

The fishing party, most of whom wore rubber boots, went to Long Beach, just below Rockaway Beach. Gloistein was in charge of the bait which consisted of sand worms, clams and five kegs of beer. The party boarded a small sloop yacht, and shortly before noon, after some delay in taking care of the bait, the yacht was anchored about a mile off shore. The first part of the day was unmarked by any incident, leaving out the experience of ex-Mayor Connolly. When he went down in the cabin to inspect the bait, some one tied a two gallon milk can to its line.

Soon after Connolly thought he had a bite, and the weight on the line made him believe that he had hooked a huge fish. His disappointment on discovering the joke was so great that he fished no more during the day.

The boat remained at anchor until it got dark, and then preparations were made to pull up the anchor. Gloistein started to perform this service, but the anchor seemed to be securely fastened to the bottom. Several of the others then grabbed hold of the rope. Finally, after much pulling and consequent puffing, the anchor was brought to the surface. "Ach, vat do I see?" said Gloistein as he caught sight of something which was firmly attached to the anchor.

Gloistein followed the exclamation by releasing his hold on the rope. The anchor and its burden immediately started for the bottom, and Connolly gave a howl as he held up his hands, which were cut and bleeding from the friction of the rope.

"Gentlemens," said Gloistein, "ve are fastened to a mine. I saw the top of it. It is filled mit dynamite. If vo hid it against itself, dere vill be explosh neses, and up to the sky ve vill be blowned."

"Dynamite!" said ex-Mayor Connolly. "It's dangerous stuff and must be handled with precision, carefulness and gentleness," he said.

At this juncture the undertaker sighted a passing tugboat.

"Let me off," he said. "Put me on the tug. I will have them take me to the shore. Then I wait for you people."

"Such a business man!" said Gloistein. "He's an undertaker. Vat a nice lot of jobs he vill have if dot dynamite is explosh ned."

The undertaker tried to signal the tug, but the captain paid no attention to him. It was finally determined to tow the supposed mine to the nearest point on the shore. The sails refused to fill, and then four pairs of oars were produced from the cabin.

Stanchions were rigged on the sides, and the four heaviest men started to pull for land. The craft moved slowly, and it was frequently necessary to put other men at the oars.

It was nearly midnight when the keel of the boat grated on the shore. Then the party waded to dry land, pulling the rope attached to the anchor and supposed mine after them.

When the supposed mine came to the surface on the sand there was a howl of disgust from the crowd. The mine proved to be a lobster trap. The crowd were wrathy against Gloistein.

"You would be in your own domicile if you were inside that trap," said ex-Mayor Connolly.

"You're no lobster," said Mike Ryan. "You're a crab. I would not insult a lobster by comparing you with it."

Gloistein stopped a promised fight by treating all hands, but he may be disciplined at the next meeting of the club.—New York Sun.

Doing More Business

implies hustling a little harder, brushing up the store, fixing up the stock, talking a little more persuasively, and more than anything else perhaps, advertising a little more or better.

Talk to the TIMES Advertising Department about the thing. All our ideas, sample advertisements, assistance of any kind to do better business or more of it by means of advertising, are anybody's for the asking.
