INCREASED RATES CAUSE TROUBLE.

Many Old Members of A. O. U. W. May Have to Throw up Policies.

LOCAL POLICY HOLDERS

About One Hundred Oswego Persons Will Be Called Upon to Pay Increased Assessments—New Plan Has Been Decided Upon—Officials Say.

Among the members of the Ancient Order of United Workmen there is considerable feeling at the action of the Supreme Lodge in increasing the rate of assessment. The dissatisfaction is not confined to Oswego as from various other cities similar reports are heard. It is claimed that a great many of the older members will leave the organization as they find it impossible to stand the increase.

The Table of New Rates.

Oswego has two lodges of the order one on each side of the river and having in both a membership of about 100. They are supposed to meet twice a month but they have not been meeting as there was little business to transact. The last death among the local members was that of Jay D. Wood whose policy for $2,000 was paid promptly by the company. Nearly all the members carry policies of $2,000 and members more than 55 years of age, according to the new rate, will have to pay $100.08 a year as long as they live. Heretofore members fifty years and older have paid $46.08 a year. The following table shows what each member has paid each month, and will have to pay on $2,000, under the new schedule, according to his age:

Old Rates.	New Rates.	Increase.
18 to 24 years.....	$1.30	$1.30
25 to 29 years.....	1.44	1.50
30 to 34 years.....	1.62	1.80
35 to 39 years.....	1.88	2.10
40 to 44 years.....	2.28	2.50
45 to 49 years.....	2.88	3.00
50 and over.....	3.74	4.00
55 and over.....	4.80	4.50

In the new rate this applies from 50 to 54 only.

Fed the Delegates.

Members who have been in the order several years balk at these figures and it is said that many will quit the order. Byron D. Houghton is master workman of the East Side and George Nelson of the West Side lodge.

Several local members allege that if economy had been practiced this increase would not be necessary. They say that it has been the custom to hold annual conventions at which each lodge is represented. At these conventions each delegate receives from $5 to $8 a day during the convention and they say that a great deal of this could be cut out.

A. C. Howe editor of the Empire Workman, the official organ in this State, in an interview says:

"While the new rate plan adopted makes much discussion and will be the cause of some of the older members dropping out, it is necessary in order to perpetuate the order. The deficiency has been increasing year after year, until now it is $600,000, and the order was obliged to adopt a new assessment plan to keep it where it has been, the strongest and oldest fraternal insurance societies. Until six years ago each member was assessed $1 upon the death of a member, and sometimes it ran as high as $32 a year. There was a kick on this, and a new plan was sought. The actuary employed advised a plan, which had been adopted, would have made the present rearrangement unnecessary, but the officers of the order only went half way. Miles M. Dawson of New York, an authority in the insurance business, whom several companies employ, has been at work for the A. O. U. W., and upon his recommendation, the present new rate was adopted.

No More Blist.

"It was necessary. It means that no new rate will ever have to be adopted again, and also means that the A. O. U. W., instead of going to the wall is going to endure as long as fraternal insurance. Some of the older members will drop out, but they cannot get other insurance because of their age. It will not affect the order materially. The adoption of the new rate was for the betterment of the order at large.

"Of the seventy deaths in the June assessment, notice in this State the average age was more than 55 years, and of the sixty-two deaths in this State in July, forty-two were more than 55 years old and the average was nearly 59 years. The young men have been paying for the old men on a plan which is inconsistent with insurance laws. The new plan is only in justice to the younger members."

The A. O. U. W. was organized in Meadville, Pa., in 1868.

LABOR UNION PICNIC.

Members Will Probably Hold Basket Picnic at Oswego Falls on Labor Day.

It is highly probable that the local labor unions will unite in an excursion and basket picnic to the Oswego Falls fair grounds on Labor Day. The matter has not been finally determined but the indications point that way. There was quite a full discussion of the matter at last evening's meeting of the Trades Council and while a number thought it best to remain at home there was quite a strong sentiment in favor of holding a basket picnic in which all can unite, at Oswego Falls. The fair grounds are enclosed and athletic sports including a base ball game can be held and altogether it is considered a desirable place. It is expected that the big celebration to be held at Syracuse at which President Roosevelt is to deliver an address will draw a large crowd from Oswego and the surrounding country. This would make uncertain the success of a big celebration here. The unions are also of the opinion that they can realize a fairly substantial sum on an excursion as proposed which money is needed to fit up the hall in the Wallace block which was recently rented by them for a period of years.

Thirty-Nine Marriages During June.

Col. E. A. Cooke, Clerk of the Bureau of Vital Statistics has forwarded his report for June to Albany. It shows that during that month 39 marriages took place in this city which was the largest number since 1897. During June of that year there were 45 nuptial events.

HYMENEAAL.

Dougherty-Doyle.

Michael Dougherty of Brooklyn and Miss Alice Doyle of West Seneca Street were united in marriage by the Rev. Father Hopkins on July 5 at St. Mary's Church. Mr. Dougherty holds a responsible position as foreman with the Brooklyn Electric Light Company. Many Oswego friends extended congratulations.

First M. F. Church.

During the repairs at the First Methodist Church all services will be held in the chapel and the evening services will begin at seven o'clock.

Union Picnic Greatly Enjoyed.

The union picnic of the Grace and Congregational Sunday Schools held at Long Branch yesterday afforded a delightful time for all who attended. It required ten coaches to convey the excursionists from this city, and the train made a very good run, requiring less than 45 minutes between Oswego and Pleasant Beach where the party was transferred to trolley cars for the picnic grounds where numerous attractions had been provided for the excursionists. The base ball game between teams from each school was won by the Congregationalists by a score of 8 to 6. The large bowling alleys were well patronized and a match game was played in which the team representing Grace Church bywied the highest score.

During the afternoon the orchestra furnished music for dancing, which was very much enjoyed, and a few people took a trolley ride to Syracuse. The day was a perfect one for a picnic and everybody reports a fine time. Not an accident occurred to mar the day's pleasure. The excursionists arrived home about 8:30 all voting Long Branch via D. L. & W. an ideal spot for a day's outing.

The bowling scores follow:

RUN OVER BY AUTO

Syracuse Druggist Under The Wheels of Conde's Machine

Yesterday's Syracuse Herald says: H. L. Passage, a druggist at No. 201 South Avenue—the South avenue pharmacy—fell in front of an automobile at the corner of South Warren and East Washington street at 10:30 this morning and the hind wheel of the machine passed over his neck and ear. He was not seriously injured.

The automobile, which was a light Oldsmobile runabout, was driven by H. L. Conde of Oswego. Mr. Conde had as passenger Francis B. Martin, also of Oswego. A rapid Transit car stood waiting for its conductor to go ahead and give the signal for it to cross the railroad tracks. Mr. Passage, who was crossing the street, saw an automobile approaching from the south on Warren street and crowding near the street placed one foot on the running board so as to make room for the auto to pass.

With the machine a few feet of Mr. Passage the car started ahead and threw Mr. Passage directly in front of it. Mr. Conde, who was at the steering handle, saw the prostrate man when it was too late to turn out. He swerved the front wheels, however, but the rear wheel passed over Mr. Passage's neck and ear.

The accident was witnessed by at least fifty people and in a few minutes the crowd had swelled to 200 or 300. Passage was picked up in a dazed condition and carried into the Vanderbilt where it was discovered that he was uninjured. The automobilists stopped, gave their names to Mr. Passage and helped to attend to the wounded man.

Mr. Conde since he came down from Oswego has had considerable experience in the troubles that an automobilist in a large city has on his hands. Last evening he went to the Valley with his friend, Mr. Martin, where they were the guests of J. P. Knight. During the evening Mr. Conde went out for a spin in his machine, leaving his coat, hat and $20 in the hammock. When he returned coat, hat and money were gone. The police are looking for them.

Barbers' Union After Yates Hotel.

Barbers' Union No. 18 of Syracuse, it is expected, will declare the Lieutenant Governor and the State Fair Commission unfair at its meeting next Monday evening because the Lieutenant Governor and the Commission patronized the Yates and held a meeting there last Wednesday. The Yates barber shop is non-union and therefore the union asked the Commission to stay away from the Yates.

Father Great Dead.

Many Oswegoians will be grieved to learn of the death recently at Overton, Pa., of Rev. Daniel H. Green. Father Green was a frequent visitor to Oswego and was especially well known to the members of St. Mary's Church, whose deceased pastor, the Rev. Father Fournier, he used to visit. Father Green was the only son of a Scranton, Pa., merchant who left a large fortune. He was a scholarly man, a fluent writer and had one of the largest libraries of any priest in the Scranton diocese.

EAST SIDE BAND STAND

Is Being Put in Condition by East Side Merchants—No Concert Last Night.

Yesterday afternoon carpenters were put at work repairing the band stand in the East Park but the expense is being borne by the progressive merchants of the East Side. It is intended to have the stand put in first class condition and offer a standing reward for information that will lead to the arrest of any person caught injuring it. Manager Burr of the Schilling Band expressed his delight at the independence and generosity displayed by the East Siders and, weather permitting, the band will give several concerts during the month of August. The announcement in an evening paper that a concert would be held last evening caused considerable inconvenience and annoyance.

Picnic at Peconic Club.

One of the most enjoyable social affairs of the present season was the picnic and dancing party held at the Peconic Club house on the boulevard yesterday afternoon and evening. About one hundred persons were in attendance. In the afternoon a game of base ball was played between teams chosen from the young men and at 6 o'clock lunch was served by the ladies of the party. In the evening dancing was indulged in until about 11 o'clock. Miss Hay's presided at the piano. The affair was a delightful one.
