You may choose these wrist bags in black, gray or tan.

Fifteen patterns of Torchon laces, widths from 2 to 3½ inches, for 5c a yd.

2 in. cotton pillow laces, for 4c a yd.

30c to 35c laces for 19c a yd.

35c to 45c laces for 25c a yd.

It's a beautiful mercerized cotton alpaca weave, made in Germany, and comes in four neat figured patterns. Medium weight such as there is greatest demand for now. The width is 27 inches.

The selling price has been 25c; while it lasts we'll cut it for you at 15c a yard—less than it cost to land it in New York.

Cretonnes Very Cheap.

For the reason that color line is broken, Upholstery store sends some dozen patterns of heavy Cretonnes to the Basement to be sold at 10c a yd.

There are about 1200 yards of them, all 36 inches wide, and the factory cost of every yard of them was more than you are asked to give.

Patterns include stripes, Oriental designs, floral effects and set figures—very pretty most of them.

ATLANTIC COAST SWEPT BY WIND

MUCH DAMAGE IS DONE AT SHORE SETTLEMENTS.

Highest Tides of Years Experienced Along Jersey Coast—Traffic on Lines Running Between Cities is Suspended Because of Washouts.

New York, April 15.—A fierce windstorm from the northeast swept New York early to-day, developing unusual severity after a night of gales. A cold rain fell steadily. The gale blew shoreward to-day the highest tide known in years and did much damage along the New Jersey and Long Island coast.

At Coney Island and Rockaway a large part of the sandy beach was cut out and much other damage was wrought. Passengers of ferry boats had to walk gang planks set at steep angles on account of the high tide. Numerous steamers plying between New York and coast ports are delayed.

The wind played a queer prank in East Bay, Moriches, L. I. The gale drove the water out of the bay and large quantities of fish were left floundering in the mud.

The gale was severe upon the shipping anchored in the bay, off Staten Island. One fishing schooner ran ashore and went to pieces. Another sank at the Stapleton docks.

There were several small accidents.

At Coney Island and Brighton Beach enormous waves wrought havoc with bulkheads and small buildings.

Along the Jersey coast the highest tides in years were experienced. Several small boats were carried out to sea, but the damage at Long Branch and Asbury Park was comparatively small.

Traffic on the Pennsylvania and Reading lines, between Camden and Ocean City, was suspended to-day, owing to numerous washouts.

In Atlantic City several streets were inundated and the waves were forced up to the porches of the beach hotels.

The steamer John H. Starin, of the Starin Transportation Company, the non-arrival of which at New Haven had caused much anxiety to friends of the passengers and crew, was located to-day at the Locust Grove excursion dock, in Huntingdon bay, Long Island. The Starin left here at 9 o'clock Monday night and should have reached New Haven, Conn., early yesterday. She put into Huntingdon bay yesterday morning.

The storm was one of the most severe ever experienced along the sound, and the steamer, with great difficulty, made Huntington bay yesterday morning.

The anchor chain parted, however, and it was found necessary to dock at Locust Grove to avoid runing ashore. Three passengers walked to Northport, ten miles distant. They reported all well on board, but rations were a bit short.

Elizabeth, N. J., April 15.—A violent northeast wind and rain storm did much damage along the water front to-day. Factories were flooded and work stopped, lumber was washed away from yards, and a large quantity of coal was swept from the Jersey Central wharves.

The Newark and Elizabeth branch of the Jersey Central is under water, and the meadows between Newark and Elizabeth have become an inland sea.

Inhabitants of the southern part of Elizabethport have had to use row boats to get to other parts of the city.

Sea Bright, N. J., April 15.—The wind and high surf did much damage here. A hut occupied by three fishermen, Swedes, was upset and thrown into the ocean. One of the Swedes was badly injured, and several houses and the board walk were damaged.

The surf washed over the tracks of the New Jersey Southern Railroad, and traffic was suspended. The lawns in front of two handsome cottages belonging to P. Hall Packer were destroyed.

Cape May, N. J., April 15.—A heavy wind storm, accompanied by high tides, incessant rain, lightning and thunder, demolished outhouses, trees and chimneys here during the night. At Ocean City the tide was so high that several families had to be removed from cottages in boats.

NO NEWS RECEIVED.

German Papers Claim Semi-Ignorance of the Missionaries' Trouble.

Berlin, April 15.—A semi-official statement was given out to the German press to-day, regarding the complaint of the American Board of Foreign Missions to the State Department at Washington, on the harsh treatment which a number of native students of the American missionary establishment on the island of Ruk, of the Carolina group, were subjected to by the captain of a German warship, who deported them to the island of Ponape, of the same group.

The arrest of four pupils is admitted, as is their transportation on board the German cruiser, Cormoran, to Ponape. Immediately upon receipt of this news in Berlin, an investigation was ordered, but owing to the great distance of the island from here the result of the inquiry has not yet been reported, hence it is impossible to judge the merits of the case. The statement further asserts that Ambassador Tower has not yet made representations in the matter to the Foreign Office. The latter assumes that the pupils have already been liberated.

Regardless of the German official version, it is understood that Secretary Hay's inquiry, in reference to the American board's complaint, was lodged with the Foreign Office here yesterday.

Schooner Thought to be Lost.

Philadelphia, April 15.—The schooner George H. Thomas, which sailed from Grand Connetable island February 5th, for New York, has been given up for lost. She carried a crew of eleven, and was valued at $60,000.

Troy Conference is Opened.

Saratoga, April 15.—Bishop Charles C. McCabe, of Omaha, Neb., to-day opened the seventy-first session of the Troy Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The conference will continue six days. Dr. John Krantz, of the Methodist Book Concern, gave a report in relation to the prosperity of that concern and the Rev. Dr. Rachelle addressed the conference in behalf of the Boston University.

ONE THOUSAND TROOPS.

Splendid Showing to be Made by New York at St. Louis Fair.

Albany, April 15.—The bill of Assemblyman Rogers, appropriating $50,000 to pay the expense of Governor Odell, the members of his staff and a representation from the National Guard, attending the dedication of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition buildings, at St. Louis, on April 30th and May 1st and 2d, is before Governor Odell for approval, and will probably be signed to-morrow.

Adjutant-General Henry is making arrangements for the transportation of 1,000 troops, to include a troop of cavalry, about eight companies of infantry and a division of naval militia. The troops will be representative of the four brigades.

Adjutant-General Henry will not be ready until to-morrow to announce the names of the organizations from which the men will be taken. The troops will leave this state on the night of April 27th, so that they will arrive in St. Louis before noon on April 29th.

FRESH CHARGES MADE.

Postoffice Department Has Its Hands Full Taking Care of Complaints.

Washington, April 15.—Fresh charges are being received constantly at the Postoffice Department, in connection with the investigation now in progress, but their nature is being withheld from the public.

Postmaster-General Payne to-day said the correspondence in the case of Assistant Attorney-General Tyner would be made public later on. Mr. Tyner's resignation takes effect May 15th.

No successor has yet been chosen, according to Mr. Payne, although a number of candidates are in the field.

Cut by Flying Glass.

New York, April 15.—In an accident on the Brooklyn bridge to-day, several persons were badly cut by flying glass. A pole projecting from a runaway truck struck a bridge train filled with passengers, and ripped along the side of the cars, sending a shower of glass inside. Three cars were damaged. In the panic several persons were caught in a crush and seriously hurt. They were removed in ambulances to a hospital.

To be No Further Mergers.

New York, April 15.—The officers of the United States Steel Corporation say there is no truth in the report that further mergers of the various subsidiary companies are still being considered. They also say the report that they have decided to hasten a greater increase of all the iron ore mines, steel mills, furnaces, coke ovens, etc., into a single ownership with a parent corporation, is entirely without foundation.

MR. HYDE

TALKS INTERESTINGLY OF REXALL ADVERTISING.

A reporter visited Hyde Drug Co.'s store last night to find out just what results were being obtained from the advertising of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets.

In a general way the reporter knew that advertising is essential to the success of any enterprise, but was entirely unprepared for the lesson he learned. The crowds of people representing all ranks of life were most impressive, and the lesson was driven home by the remarks of the firm. Mr. Hyde was asked by the reporter to tell him something of his ideas regarding the Rexall advertising, and why it was considered necessary to spend so much money and artistic skill on these lines of remedies, particularly in view of the fact that so much was being said of the value of the Rexall Dyspepsia cure by purchasers.

Mr. Hyde smiled and said: "An advertisement is a salesman. Like a salesman an advertisement must be well-dressed; it must be attractive, no one likes to see a slouchy, ill kept, poorly dressed drummer come in to sell goods.

"An advertisement must follow these general lines. In these days of artistic advertising, no one will read a badly constructed advertisement.

"The salesman must be able to attract attention to his wares, hold the buyer to his goods and convince him that the articles shown are the best for the purchaser. But this must be done without straining the truth, for he must remember before all things the maxim that Abraham Lincoln made immortal: 'You can fool all of the people some of the time; you can fool some of the people all of the time, but you cannot fool all the people all of the time.'

"All this is true of an advertisement. Of what profit would it be for us to advertise Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, spending thousands of dollars to do so, if our goods were worthless, if our object was to fool all of the people some of the time, or a few of the people all of the time.

"And from what I have just said it must be seen that merit is the bed rock of the salesman's or of the advertisement's argument.

"Occasionally we are asked to make good our guarantee. We always refund the purchase price without question. The average where the Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets fail to cure is about one in every one hundred, and we believe in most of these instances they have not had a fair trial.

"In this way we inspire confidence in our goods. We dare do this for we know what Rexall will do.

"Watch the manoeuvers of the Rexall army. Every advertisement will be well worth watching, for there will be something interesting and profitable to young and old alike in every one."

It is duty of every man to add something to the stock of human happiness. By insisting that the sick of this city should take Rexall Remedies, and thus vanquish the enemy, disease.

We believe that much is being accomplished in this direction by the Hyde Drug Company.

WOMANS GENTLE NATURE
CALLS FOR GENTLE TREATMENT

Delicately formed and gently reared, women will find, in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives, or mothers, that the one simple, wholesome remedy which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally, and which may be used with truly beneficial effects, under any conditions, when the system needs a laxative, is—Syrup of Figs. It is well known to be a simple combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants with pleasant, aromatic liquids, which are agreeable and refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system when its gentle cleansing is desired.

Many of the ills from which women suffer are of a transient nature and do not come from any organic trouble and it is pleasant to know that they yield so promptly to the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs, but when anything more than a laxative is needed it is best to consult the family physician and to avoid the old-time cathartics and loudly advertised nostrums of the present day. When one needs only to remove the strain, the torpor, the congestion, or similar ills, which attend upon a constipated condition of the system, use the true and gentle remedy—Syrup of Figs—and enjoy freedom from the depression, the aches and pains, colds and headaches, which are due to inactivity of the bowels.

Only those who buy the genuine Syrup of Figs can hope to get its beneficial effects and as a guarantee of the excellence of the remedy the full name of the company—California Fig Syrup Co.—is printed on the front of every package and without it any preparation offered as Syrup of Figs is fraudulent and should be declined. To those who know the quality of this excellent laxative, the offer of any substitute, when Syrup of Figs is called for, is always resented by a transfer of patronage to some first-class drug establishment, where they do not recommend, nor sell false brands, nor imitation remedies. The genuine article may be bought of all reliable druggists everywhere at 50 cents per bottle.

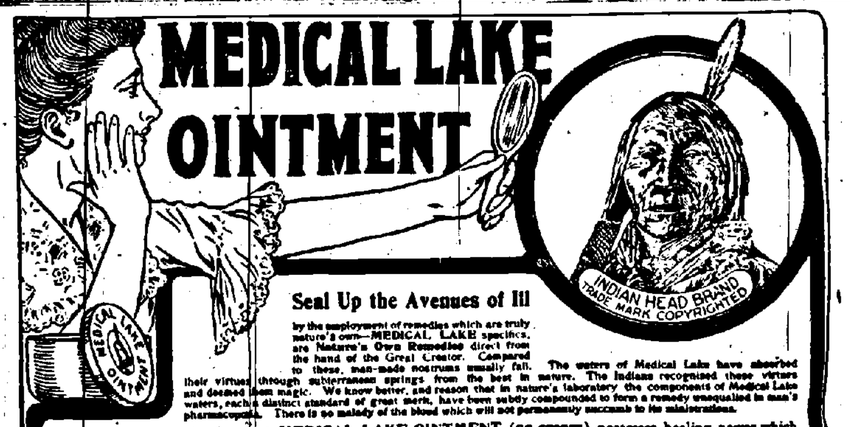
MEDICAL LAKE OINTMENT



Seal Up the Avenues of Ill

by the employment of remedies which are truly nature's own—MEDICAL LAKE specifics, are Nature's Own Remedies direct from the hand of the Great Creator. Compared to these, man-made nostrums usually fail. The waters of Medical Lake have absorbed their virtues through subterranean springs from the best in nature. The Indians recognized these virtues and deemed them magic. We know better, and reason that in nature's laboratory the components of Medical Lake waters, each a distinct standard of great merit, have been subtly compounded to form a remedy unequalled in man's pharmacopoeia. There is no malady of the blood which will not permanently succumb to its administrations.

It is small wonder then that MEDICAL LAKE OINTMENT (or cream) possesses healing power which seems marvelous. This preparation is an Ideal Skin Food and beautifier and is the quickest and most agreeable remedy for Sunburn, Eczema, Burns, Bruises, Chapped Hands and Face, and all Roughness and Irritation of the Skin—is the most beneficial in its effects of all emollients and is an article which cannot safely be dispensed with in any household.
