IS THIS YOUR STORY?

"Every morning I have a bad taste in my mouth; my tongue is coated; my head aches and I often feel dizzy. I have no appetite for breakfast and what food I eat distresses me. I have a heavy feeling in my stomach. I am getting so weak that sometimes I tremble and my nerves are all unstrung. I am getting pale and thin. I am as tired in the morning as at night."

What does your doctor say? "You are suffering from Impure Blood. What is his remedy?"

You must not have constipated bowels if you expect the Sarsaparilla to do its best work. But Ayer's Pills cure constipation.

We have a book on Paleness and Weakness which you may have for the asking.

Write to our Doctors. Perhaps you would like to consult with the best medical authorities. Write us freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply.

THE DIET FAD.

Sensible people have learned that the best diet is a variety of wholesome food. If the digestive apparatus is out of order, no amount of starvation diet will regulate it, but will tend to aggravate rather than remedy the ailment.

BE SURE

Be sure you need medicine before you take it, but having once found out that you need it—lose no time in getting the best. It's for the Kidney, Liver, Bladder, Blood, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia or for Chronic Constipation, the best is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and it is very simple way to find out if you need it is to put some urine in a glass tumbler and let it stand 24 hours if it then has a sediment or a milky, cloudy appearance, if it is rosy or stringy pale or discolored, you do not need a physician to tell you that you should take a favorite remedy at once. It especially cures such dangerous symptoms as pain in the back, frequent desire to urinate especially at night, burning scalding pain in passing water, the staining of linen by your urine and all the unpleasant and dangerous effects produced on the system by the use of whiskey and beer. All reliable druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy at $1.00 a bottle, or 6 bottles for $5.00.

By a special and particular arrangement with the manufacturers, our readers can try this grand medicine absolutely free. By sending your full name and post office address to the Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N. Y., mentioning the Adirondack News as when a trial bottle of Favorite Remedy, together with a pamphlet of valuable medical information, will be sent you by mail postpaid.

WHITEMAN'S OREAM JARS

ADIRONDACK GOLD SEEKERS.

An exchange says that a score of college students of scientific mind and adventurous nature, whose homes are in the various villages among the foothills on the great South Woods, have arranged to devote their approaching vacation to investigate the persistently repeated tale of a lost mine in the Adirondacks, believers in the existence of which are to be found among all classes through out this section from college professors down to backwoods guides and hunters. The party will make Tupper Lake village their headquarters it is said, and will include students from Hamilton, Cornell, the Potsdam Polytechnic and Normal school and from St. Lawrence University. They will be led by Prof. A. D. Stetson of New York city, an enthusiastic geologist and a former resident of St. Lawrence county.

DEALERS, TAKE NOTICE.

Dealers in cigarettes and tobacco will do well to notice the change in the law regarding the sale of the same, passed at the last session of the legislature. Section 390 of the penal code is amended to read as follows: A person who sells, pays for or furnishes any cigar, cigarette or tobacco in any of the forms to any child actually or apparently under the age of 16 years; is guilty of a misdemeanor. This act will take effect immediately.

The law also makes provision against the use by boys of cigarettes or cigars. Section 201 of the penal code reads as follows:

No child actually or apparently under 16 years of age shall smoke or in any way use any cigar, cigarette, or tobacco in any form whatsoever in any public street, place or resort. A violation of this subdivision shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $10 and not less than $2 for each offense.

The Clinton County "Farmer" says a novel question of law arose in Bourers last week. A young man buried his wife in the Mooers cemetery a year ago. He wanted to know if her wants were supplied after a year's burial, so he dug down to the coffin, opened it and found her in a good state of decomposition. The outside box needed a screw in one corner and he had the mechanic who made the box put one in. He found that the plate on the coffin, which he supposed was silver was not silver and a suit for damages will be instituted. Now the young man says that he loved his wife when she was alive, and still loves her now that she is dead; he provided for her when she was alive and wants to provide for her while dead, and opened the grave to see if anything was needed. The authorities claim he had no right to open the grave and that his duty toward his wife ended with her burial. The young man claims that his uxorious obligations extended to the grave. The legal rights of the parties will have to be settled by the courts.

FORT JACKSON.

May 30.—Appropriate Memorial exercises were held in the M. E. church on Sunday. Rev. Tooke delivered the address.

Many from here will attend the Decoration Day exercises to be held in Nicholville on Tuesday. Tuesday evening there will be held an ice cream social on the school lawn for benefit of the M. E. church. Henry Wells, Frank Locke and George Fleming attended the I. O. O. F. anniversary held in Canton Monday and report a fine time. Mr. and Mrs. Newell are home from Parisville.

The I. O. O. F. Lodge has been moved from Hopkinton here into Miller & Ober's store.

Rev. Lemmon L. Green, the subject of this article, was born in Dunham, Canada 76 years ago the 2d of July. In early childhood he came to St. Albans, Vt. He was converted at the age of 18, and the one grand theme of his life since then has been telling to all men the story of Jesus and His love. In his 25th year he was united in marriage with Miss Ann Towle, of Franklin, Vermont. Two sons and five daughters blessed their union, all of whom are married and reside in Vermont excepting two daughters, Mrs. Hasleton and Mrs. Miller, who are residents of this place, and one son, Har die, who still remains single and will live with and care for the aged and feeble mother in the old home, from which the last sad tributes of love and respect were paid to the honored and esteemed father on Friday May 19th 1899. For nearly ten years Rev. Green has been more or less a sufferer, but always was ready to minister to the public good without thought of his own personal pain, since last Nov. he has been confined to the house, and to one of his active temperment, confinement meant very much, but he strove with reading and study to fill up his life, although he knew from the nature of his disease that his allotted time here was short. We feel our incompetency when we attempt to write anything upon the life of such a man as Rev. L. L. Green. The Bible was his text book every day, a man gifted with high mental powers and a gift of oratory that filled him to preside any and everywhere he might be called upon. He will be missed and his place can never be filled. He resided here for 31 years and his presence among our sick and at the death-bed of loved ones has been one of the familiar features of our lives now to be no more. There are none here but have been recipients of his prayers and counsels, and after he became so afflicted by disease that his hearing was much impaired, he yet continued to speak, and while suffering the most excruciating pain, but a few days before his death, which occurred at about 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon May 16th, he would exclaim "Praise the Lord," and to those who surrounded his death-bed, he expressed the wish for the strength to again speak for his master. Rev. Tooke, of this charge assisted by Rev. Miller, of Brasher, officiated at his funeral, choosing the 54th, 56th and 58th verses of the 15th chapter of I Cor. as the subject of the discourse. Thus there is nothing that comes so forcibly as Paul's last words when we think of the life of this great man at its close. "For I am now ready to be offered and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight I have finished my course I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord the righteous judge shall give me at that day."

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

James Williams, a colored convict at Clinton prison, set fire to his bedding last Saturday and was so badly burned that death ensued.

Hon. Worth Chamberlain, candidate for district attorney of St. Lawrence county, was thrown from his carriage while making his canvass in Louisville, Friday night, breaking two ribs, spraining his leg, besides receiving other painful injuries. He lay unconscious for some time. Mr. Chamberlain was taken to Canton Saturday. The accident was due to a defective harness.

Grandmaster Franklin P. Trautmann and Grand Marshal Francis Lahaunt, of Brooklyns, were guests of Neboaha Lodge, I. O. O. F., Monday evening and exemplified the secret work of the order. The initiatory degree was also worked. The evening closed with a banquet, at which the grand master, grand marshal and Past Grand J. P. Kellas responded with remarks. The evening passed most enjoyably.—Farmer.

An exchange says a girl who was very clever at college came home the other day and said to her mother: "Mother, I've graduated; but now I must inform myself in psychology, bible—" "Just wait a minute," said the mother, "I've arranged for you a thorough course in roastology, bolology, stichology, darnology, patchology and general domesticology. Now get your apron and pluck that chicken."

S. N. Babcock, one of the prominent residents of the town of Norfolk died at his residence in Raymondville, Saturday night, May 27th, of heart failure, aged 51 years. Mr. Babcock retired Saturday evening apparently as well as usual. About an hour after going to bed he was called up by his man, who wanted a key to the store. He gave the man the key and said to his wife that he was not feeling very well and thought a tablet would help him. His wife got a tablet for him and before she could get a glass of water with which he was to take it, he died. Mr. Babcock has for several years run a general store at Raymondville, and the last few years also had charge of the creamery at that place. He was widely known throughout the town and unusually respected as an honest, upright, enterprising citizen. His death will be sad news, not only to his family and friends, but to the community.—Norwood News.

The army worms, says the Malone "Farmer," are creating havoc again between the brick church and Titusville. They are stripping all the trees and it is believed that all the poplars will be killed, for the worms seem particularly fond of them. R. J. Cunningham is endeavoring to protect his shade trees from ruin by placing builders' paper around the trunks, covering it with tar to stop their progress up the tree and applying kerosene to the worms in masses. There is danger from this pest, and if we would save this section from destruction next year we must eradicate them while in the crawling state this season. They are smaller than the tent caterpillar or apple tree worm and seem to be blacker. Something ought to be done by the water company on its lands to kill the pests. The town officials ought also to take hold of it.

An exchange says a Clayton inventor claims an invention whereby a water power can be situated in any still pond or lake. He barely submerged a tube, at the bottom of which is a turbine wheel. Connected with the tube at the bottom is an atomizing chamber, from which the water is carried to the surface in a tube, thence blown off in the air like exhaust steam. The process continued produces a downward current in a barrel containing the turbine, and there you have a water power without dam or raceway, which knocks another old saw in the head, for the water that turns the wheel comes back in the form of spray and gathers to go through the operation again. The inventor wants neither capital nor partners, have sufficient means of his own to promote the invention. The drawings make the matter appear feasible. The atomizing process carried on under the water is a secret which the inventor will not discuss.
