MRS. ALLAN OSBORNE
CORRESPONDENT

The bulletins were given last Sunday by Byron and Jewel Smith of the Kentucky Mts. Crusade Inc., Salyersville, Ky. Anyone having used clothing for this mission can still bring it to the parsonage or Government home anytime this week.

On Wednesday, Feb. 6 the W.S.C.S. of North Volney met with Mrs. Flora Fleming for dinner.

The Faithful Circle will meet on Thursday, Feb. 7 with Mrs. Glen Parker in Fulton, at 1:30 for dessert.

Next Sunday, Feb. 10, will be Race Relations Sunday.

icy roads don't seem to affect church attendance mater-ally, although there is room for more. You would be welcome. Rec. Volmer would be glad to eat on shut-ins if you will let him know of anyone you hear about. He has been quite busy recently calling, as many are ill or have been.

Mrs. Doris Kinnell is confined to her bed by hepatitis. The Rockwools are also convalescing from it.

Incident: weather made it advisable to cancel the Grange meeting last Saturday. Next meeting will be Feb. 16, weather permitting.

Larry Denniston of McGraw, N.Y. took tests recently and passed for admission to Potsdam College, which he plans to attend next fall. He will major in music.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse King attended the marriage of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lita Whitney, of E. River Rd., S. to Robert Oakley, at the First Methodist Church in Phoenix on Jan. 19. Immediate families and friends were present.

The bride was given in marriage by her son, Gordon Pitcher of Phoenix. Attendants were:

Miss Lynn Oakley of N Syracuse, daughter of the groom, and Terry Pitcher of Phoenix, son of the bride. Also standing with the wedding party was Gary Oakley of N Syracuse, son of the bridegroom. In the evening, a reception was held at the home of the bride on Rt. 57 which was attended by about 50 guests. After a brief trip, Mr. and Mrs. Oakley will reside at the Rt. 57 residence.

Mrs. Oakley was the wife of the late LeRoy Pitcher, native of Howard Rd., Volney.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilkins of West Palm Beach, Fla. are parents of a daughter born Jan. 28 in that city. Mrs. Wilkins is the former Judith Gibson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caspary Gibson of Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. Ernestine Bartlett and Mrs. Bernice Bartlett are out following illnesses. Melvin Austin is also reported better; also Charles Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Parsons were dinner guests at David Parsons on Jan. 31.

Mr. Dietrick, father of Dewey Dietrick is convalescing from a fall at his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Stacy of Remsen were dinner guests at James Bartlett's on Monday, Jan. 28, while on their way to Florida where they plan to vacation for two or three weeks. They plan to visit Charles Cruch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Balcom and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ives while there.

Crouch passed away January 26, 1963

Members of the Bowens Corners Grange 99 and friends are asked to contribute their used Christmas cards and all occasion cards to the Grange. There is a definite use for those pretty cards that require so much storage space.

Several ladies of the church met with an advisor from the Home Demonstration so that they could help plan the management of our new kitchen. This project is of interest to all and you may have an idea to let's discuss this at our various meetings and help our builders arrive at the best plan for us. At an official board meeting Feb. 13, ideas and plans for the kitchen will be reviewed.

Anyone having old papers that they wish to be rid of are requested to tie them in bundles or put them in cardboard boxes for easy handling and leave them in the barn at the church.

A new list of ladies on the nursery committee has been posted in the entrance at the church. Marion Dixon is in charge of this and should be notified if for some reason, you are not able to attend on the date listed.

Miss Linda Gardner was home from Keoka College over the weekend. A girl friend from the college accompanied her and they returned Sunday evening.

There were 18 members of the Philotha class of the Methodist Church gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Livingston on Friday. A covered dish dinner was served at 12:30 p.m. Mrs. May Norton, president, presided at the busness meeting. Mrs. Fred Garchrist, a new member who moved here from Syracuse with her husband and son last Sunday, and lives in the home of William Smith place on Auburn St., had charge of the interesting program.

The W.C.T.U. members met with Mrs. Maynard Gardner Thursday.

Mrs. Harold White entertained Mrs. Bertha Garrison at a dinner Wednesday in honor of her 83rd birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Charles Kranze entertained at dinner Sunday. Mrs. Willette Krugze, Mr. and Mrs. George Kranze and family, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Kranze and family and Miss Muriel Manning in honor of the birthday anniversaries of her husband and Mrs. Willette Kranze. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones of Canandaigua were callers at the Kranze home in the afternoon.

Mrs. Fred George of this village received word Monday forenoon that her former neighbor, Mrs. Edward Brown, had passed away in Eustis, Florida hospital.

Mrs. James Holmes of this village has returned home from Lee Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Clark have a little son, born in Lee Memorial hospital.
