Rev. Isaman observes 24 years

On Sunday, January 2, 1977 Rev. Norman Isaman completed twenty-four years ministry in the Phoenix United Church of Christ (Congregational).

This was a Communion Service, at the conclusion of which the congregation dedicated the church education building to Rev. Isaman because he was so instrumental in its construction and in the growth of the youth in the church. A plaque will be installed at a later date. Rev. Isaman was presented a purse by the congregation on December 5.

Rev. Isaman came to Phoenix on January 1, 1953. Prior to that he had served as minister for six years in the Pilgrim Congregational Church at Conesus, N.Y. and the Community Congregational Church at South Livonia, N.Y. He taught grammar school in Island Trees School at Hempstead, Long Island, Arkport and North Hornell, and he also taught high school in Hornell, a total of ten years teaching.

Rev. Isaman received his education at Arkport High School, Buffalo State Teachers College, earned his B.A. degree at Alfred University and B. D. and M.D. degrees at Colgate-Rochester Divinity School.

During his pastorate in Phoenix, Rev. Isaman served as moderator of the Oneida Association Church District twice. He was a member of Oneida District Committees -- Stewardship, Education, also Church, and Ministry. On the last one, he served nearly nine years. He was also a member of the State Church and Ministry Committee. He taught at the Lisle Conference Center for ten years and was Chaplain there for four summers. Rev. Isaman was instrumental in the entry into the ministry by four young men of the Phoenix United Church of Christ.

Rev. Isaman has contributed a great deal to the church as well as to the entire community. We sincerely hope that he will continue to live in this area and enjoy a well-deserved retirement with many years of good health and happiness.

Continuing ed. program to start

The Spring 1977 Continuing Education Program for the Fulton Consolidated School District will begin the first full week of February. Most classes meet once each week and last ten weeks.

The Fall 1976 Program served over 1,000 people in 43 different courses and workshops. Currently, the Adult Basic Education, English As A Second Language and High School Equivalency courses are in full operation as they are conducted for the duration of the school year.

Special courses planned for the Spring semester include: Golf, Pottery, Income Tax Preparation, Photography, Decorations and Crafts, Tennis, and Mu- and Crafts, Tennis, and Music Appreciation. The traditional Business, Avocational, Recreational and Academic courses such as Typing, Foreign Languages, Ballet and Woodworking will also be offered.

Full details and a schedule of courses will appear in next week's papers.
