Recent Brides

Hammond- Wollersberger

The Rev. Richard Northrup performed the double-ring, 2 o'clock ceremony June 17, uniting in marriage Miss Rhonda Louise Hammond and David A. Wollersberger in State Street United Methodist Church. Large baskets of mums, gladioli, pompoms, and baby breath decorated the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wells C. Hammond and the late Wells C. Hammond, 413 West First Street Fulton. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wollersberger, R.D. #1 Rathburn Road, Fulton.

Family and guest pews were marked with white satin ribbons and a white bridal rug was laid to the sanctuary for the entrance of the bridal party.

Escorted and given in marriage by her uncle, George Hammond, the bride wore a floor length gown of white chiffon with chantilly lace. The bodice of her gown was all in chiffon with lace trim at the cuffs and neckline. The floor length skirt was chantilly lace over taffeta. The brides chapel length veil of illusion was bordered with scalloped chantilly lace matching the lace in the gown. She carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis, and baby's breath.

Mrs. David Lamb was matron of honor for her sister, Miss Cecelia Wollersberger, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Mrs. Thomas Clark, friend of the bride was bridesmaid. Miss Oase Marie Lamb, niece of the bride was junior bridesmaid.

All the bridal attendants were dressed in floor length gowns in pastel shades of blue, pink, yellow, and lavender. They carried cascades of sweetheart roses, carnations, and baby breath. Gary Benedict, Sr. brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were David Lamb Sr., brother-in-law of the bride.

Arnold Anderson, brother of the bride and David Lamb Jr. was junior usher.

Miss Lynn Williams, cousin of the bride was flower girl. Master Gary Benedict, Jr., nephew of the groom was ringbearer. Reception was held in the State Street Great Hall.

The bride is a graduate of G. Ray Bodley High School, attended Monroe Community College and is presently employed at the Fulton Instrument Company. The groom is a graduate of Hannibal Central School, and is presently employed at Birdseye Inc.

Guests were present from Hannibal, Oswego, Syracuse, Springfield, Mass., Silver Springs Maryland, Weedsport, Mexico, Fulton and Martville.
