

Band competition at county fair

The Oswego County Fair will feature its 4th annual Band Competition in front of the Grandstand in Sandy Creek on August 20.

Again this year the competition will feature five very exciting High School Bands vying for the winners share of over $1800 in prize money and trophies.

Attending this year's fair and making their first appearance in the northcountry will be the 175 member Bainbridge-Gulfport Blues Marching Band and Color Guard under the direction of David Harvey. The B-G Blues are considered to be one of the best summer marching bands in the northcountry and will be making exhibition appearances at Giant Stadium and Rich Stadium prior to their visit here. Also attending from the southern tier will be the Harpurville High School Marching Band and Color Guard. Filling out the line-
