

Serves Aboard Aircraft Carrier

Navy Seaman Robert Deming, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Deagle, of Route 5, Fulton, returned to Alameda, Calif., aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea after a nine-month deployment in the Western Pacific.

A part of the U. S. Seventh Fleet, the Coral Sea provided air support for U. S. troops serving in Southeast Asia.

Anna Watkins, David Stanton Wed In Kentucky

Miss Anna Doty Watkins and Lee David Stanton were united in marriage June 13 at the Severus Valley Baptist Church, Elizabethtown, Kentucky.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Watkins of 614 Pike St., Elizabethtown. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stanton, 810 Cayuga St.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a traditional floor length gown of white peau de soie with Venice lace covering an empire bodice fashioned with high mandarin neckline and full gossamer sleeves ending in a slender cuff. The skirt softly gathered in back with detachable chapel train of peau de soie. Her tiered veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a hairpiece of Venice lace. She carried a French bouquet of phloxenopsis orchids, baby's breath and fleur de'amour to match the bridesmaids' gowns.

Miss Denise Watkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a traditional floor length dress of turquoise chiffon over taffeta. She carried a French bouquet of white orchids, baby's breath and fleur de amour dyed to accent the dress.

Bridesmaids were Miss Kelta McCabe and Miss Eileen Tocco of Elizabethtown. They wore gowns of turquoise chiffon over taffeta.

John Dilworth of Kalamazoo, Mich. was best man. Ushers were Al Matlock of Radcliff, Kentucky and Joseph Daigle, Jr. of Rochester.

The groom was graduated from Fulton High School in 1964 and spent three years in the U. S. Army at the Mental Hygiene Clinic at Ft. Knox. He is now a Senior at the State University College at Oswego. The couple will reside in Fulton at W. River Rd., N.
