

Back to the Cabbage Patch

Cabbage Patch Peas live and last week, mothers, daughters, grandmothers, aunts, and even a few fathers, flocked to KBC to select the perfect "little one" for their "little ones." Over 1600 dolls, of European descent, were handed to their respective parents in delight.

This week at Towpath Towers

I enjoy living in March, with its cold winds that blow Rachel and Joe Trapano have returned home from Lewiston, N.Y., where they celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary. The actual date was February 10 but the surprise party was held on the 9th for family and friends. Rachel and Joe were their attendants at Holy Family Church forty years ago and couldn't miss the party. Their planned trip for three days was extended to ten days due to the weather and Joe not feeling well for a few days. Ray Bidwell is home from his winter vacation in Palm Springs, Calif. Mary Maxwell, Jerry Wilshire, Jessie Sullivan, Leeta Wellwood, Cecile Christopher and Mary Perkins and I attended the Fulton Senior Citizens Club Birthday Dinner on Thursday night. Anna Burnett gave a continuous demonstration of egg decorating and her bird's nest. There were beautiful arrangements of fresh flowers and her niece, Kim Howard VanNorstrand of Meridian, shared us with piano music. Her neighbor, Mrs. James-Luan of Meridian was also a guest and her program was given by Janice Fry, a reviewer of the book "The Bird's Nest" by Peter Goodfellow. Many of the birds of England are mentioned in Shakespeare's plays and now are also our birds. 52 attended coffee hour.

Kay Roe is home from the hospital and making excellent progress after her knee surgery. Fred LaFave is a patient in Lee Memorial and Ben Hogan will be home on Monday to spend weekends at her daughter's.

Lillian Stow, our former tenant, is now at Lt. Lake's in Oswego where she joins many friends who were our former tenants.

John LaPointe, Jr. (Jack) of California is visiting his mother, Eleanor LEPOINTE, and other relatives.

Bunco has been started on Tuesday evenings and four tables enjoyed the first meeting this week. We had the largest group this winter for Bunco. Friday night, Edna Burnett and I attended the 1909 Shakespeare Club Tea at the home of Mrs. Ray Shaver. It will be held on Friday night, March 10, at the home of Mrs. Shaver. There were beautiful arrangements of fresh flowers and her niece, Kim Howard VanNorstrand of Meridian, shared us with piano music. Her neighbor, Mrs. James-Luan of Meridian was also a guest and her program was given by Janice Fry, a reviewer of the book "The Bird's Nest" by Peter Goodfellow. Dance company to perform

Impulse Dance Company, a repertory dance company characterized by its depth and range of jazz dance, will perform at 8:15 p.m. on Thursday, March 16, at the Oswego High School Theater of Performing Arts. The program is sponsored by SUNY Oswego's Program Policy Board Multicultural Committee.

The troupe of 10 dancers is primarily a touring company. It has performed throughout the Northeast as well as in the Southwest.

Tickets for the Impulse Dance Company concert on March 16 are available at SUNY Oswego Check Cashing, Gentile's Music Box in Oswego and Murphy's Gifts in Fulton.

Ice Capades plan Syracuse performances

From stunts twirling 35-feet above the frozen surface, to stunning precision footwork on ice, Ice Capades' new revue, "DREAM WORLD," stars their "untested" troupe of 12 ice skating extravaganza opens at the War Memorial in Syracuse for eight performances from Wednesday, March 20 through Sunday, March 24.

Featured in this year's production is the perennial favorite of audiences throughout the world, "Mr. Debonair," Richard Dwyer. This marks his first Ice Capades appearance in Syracuse, although he has costarred in other Ice Capades productions throughout New York State. For information or to charge tickets by phone, patrons can call (315) 471-3380.

Wallendas at Shrine Circus

The incomparable, world-renowned Wallendas, masters of illusion, the Equedans and the amazing Cortez Flyers are among the 20 electrifying acts in the 1985 Tigris Shrine Circus to be presented March 15, 16 and 17 in six city shows. For information or to charge tickets by phone, patrons can call (315) 471-3380.

This will mark the 55th annual Tigris Shrine Circus performance in Syracuse with the proceeds going to support Shrine's activities.

Writing arts festival at SUNY Oswego

The Spring 1985 Writing Arts Festival, sponsored by the department of English at SUNY Oswego, will present Jean Rikhoff on Thursday, March 14.

New version at SUNY Oswego: "Alice in Wonderland"

Actors for boys? That is what happens on stage in a new version of "Alice in Wonderland" to be presented in the Lab Theatre in Tyler Hall at SUNY Oswego starting March 5.

The play begins with Alice in her bedroom playing with her toys, who really are actors, says Karen Jennings, the student director. "When Alice goes to sleep she discovers Wonderland in her dreams and, of course, the actor-boys bring the tale to life. The actors play all kinds of things. Alice chases a white rabbit down a hole, meets a sea of strange animals and goes to a mad tea party," according to Jennings.

The show is a trip through the imagination to visit the Wonderland of Lewis Carroll's children's classic. The idea of the production is simple: if children were left alone in a room how would they create Wonderland with the few trinkets around them. The actors have to create the atmosphere. They have to become trees, houses, holes. The whole production is designed to make people use their imagination."

"Alice in Wonderland" is being sponsored by the Student Association and the Bleeders, a student run and will be presented in the Lab Theatre at 8:15 p.m. on March 5 through 9 with a special matinee at 2 p.m. on March 9. The cast includes Lori Webb, Dexter Jones, Tom Hamilton, David Macy, Kathy Bousa, Jim Iorio and Dan Hartman.

The best office is now open from 1 to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday. For reservations call 541-2141. Ticket prices are $3 for adults, $2 for children and senior citizens and $1.50 for Student Association members.

Now you can put money into an IRA the same way you make it.
A little bit at a time.

Like most other banks, we recommend you put $2000 into an IRA each year. It can save you a small fortune in taxes now and give you a large fortune to retire on later.

But unlike most other banks, we realize that not many people can cash off a $2000 check whenever they feel like it.

So we invented the Key Bank IRA Advantage. It's an IRA that you can open with as little as $20. Then you can keep contributing $20 or more to your account any time you want to, all year long.

Or just say the word and we'll automatically transfer money from your Key Bank checking account to your IRA once a week, or once a month. And with our IRA Advantage Account there's no bank penalty for early withdrawal.

As if that isn't convenient enough, just send in the coupon below and we'll send you a Key Bank Do-It-At-Home IRA Kit. It lets you plan for the comfort of your future right in the comfort of your own home.

So if you've been putting off opening an IRA because you thought you couldn't afford it, we think you should talk to us.

Because at Key Bank, we really want your business. Even if we have to get it a little bit at a time. You're the key to everything we do.

The best government process is 100% tax penalty on money withdrawn from any IRA before age 59½ unless you are disabled.

Please send me my Do-It-At-Home IRA Kit

Dr. Perkins writes article

Kathleen C. Perkins, M.D., a pediatrician and member of the Oswego Hospital Medical Staff, authored an in-depth article in the January, 1985 issue of "Contemporary Pediatrics."

The article appeared in the publication's regular series "Toward a More Sensitive Practice" and was titled "A Part Time Fellowship Kept Me in Pediatrics."

After James H. Forest, M.D., of Forest Ave., Fulton, is a nephrologist majoring in biology.

To qualify for the Dean's List, students had to carry at least 12 credit hours and maintain a 3.4 grade point average.

Dr. Perkins said she felt she needed to know more about counseling patients, treating learning disabilities, and dealing with other biological aspects of the "new pediatrician." "My research projects offered significant insights into the lives of my adolescent patients, and I would strongly recommend going back to school," she said.
