P. T. A. Workshop

A workshop discussion group of the Fulton Council of Parents and Teachers was held last week to discuss school aid legislation now pending in Washington and Albany, and the improvement of week end movies in communities.

Fabrics are Crisp, Polished

Many wools have the airy look — basketweaves, hilly sackings, tweed Boucles and petit point effects carry out the trend to feminine refinement in fabrics.

Lustrous zibelines stand out among the polished fabrics. Blending of fibers, natural and man-made, continues at a great rate.

Whether alone or in blends, both the man-made fibers and cotton concentrate on making a fresh, different appearance.

Preference for the supple, plaid and glen plaid, again with a lot of white, head the spring story chapter on color and pattern.

It's a Good Suit Story, With Flattery, Surprises in the Plot

Main plot of the spring suit story is to provide styles to please and flatter every woman.

Like all good stories, it offers some happy surprises. Hints of a lower waistline, a move toward fullness in skirts, and deep, wide, cropped short sleeves create interest.

Some new characters are introduced, and some familiar ones appear in a new-season mood.

Suits along Chanel lines, with braided bodice and cordigan jackets and pleated skirts, and suits with double-breasted hipcup or shorter jackets above a variety of easy skirts have fresh appeal in spring '69 textures and colorings.

Crisply tailored suits with longer jackets—wear a fine, pretty length—emphasize distinctive detail, such as seaming for dropped shoulder effect.

Gentle care refreshes the time suit. Walking suits, with jackets long enough to double as coats, continue in popularity.

Subtle means are often used to suggest a long torso line. Cut-away jackets, dipping lower in back, jackets with peplums, and low-necked seamings or other details on the skirts achieve this effect.

Jacket slappings vary from boxy to demured. The latter are frequently belted. Soft blouses are many jackets.

Shoulder widening effects, kimono sleeves, padded push-up sleeves and deep dolman cuts all contribute to top interest in suit silhouettes. Sleeve lengths range from above elbow to just above the wrist.

Skirts have a new ease, with little pleats or gathers creating a rounded hipline effect for even the slimmest styles.

All around pleats, gores and folded panels produce greater fullness, and the trend is still more emphatic in suit skirts that are cone or bell shaped, or flared.

Costume suits are favorites, especially when the accompanying blouse is a silk print with matching jacket lining. Newest version of this look is designed so that the blouse collar and cuffs appear to be a trim for the jacket.

Fur trimmed suits continue for early spring, often with little plaits or gathers creating a rounded hipline effect for even the slimmest styles.

Real, white and navy combine for a nautical mood in sportswear using white rope and other details on the skirts. Striped shirts, blouses, and white combine with blue plaits or shorts.
