ADVERTISEMENTS IN THE PATRIOT.

MILLIONS SENT TO WAR SUFFERERS

Over $215,000,000 Spent For Relief in European Nations.

AMERICANS MOST GENEROUS

More Than $150,000,000 Has Been Expended For American Food, Clothing and Hospital Supplies—Aid Extended Belgium Has Cost $110,000,000. America Has Given Practically All.

Summaries carried to the end of 1915 show that more than $150,000,000 has been spent for American foodstuffs, clothing and hospital supplies which have been forwarded to the war zones by relief agencies.

Of the total approximately two-thirds, or $109,000,000, was raised and spent in the latter part of 1914, after the last week in August.

In addition, relief for the Germanic side has been provided in money, which has been used in payment for supplies made in Germany and Austria. Individual donations in this country and elsewhere amount for more than $40,000,000, and cash contributions for Germans and Jews have exceeded $25,000,000.

Of $110,000,000 expended by the commission for relief in Belgium about $30,000,000 was given outright by persons and societies in all except the Germanic countries. All of the $110,000,000 was spent in this country.

The commission has sent to Belgium 180 shipments of supplies. The war relief clearing house for France acts for 1,900 organizations in this country. It has shipped since November, 1914, 17,500 cases of supplies, containing 2,000,000 articles.

The largest relief organization is the American Red Cross, which has received more than $1,000,000. In one week the Red Cross shipped 400 tons of foodstuffs for Serbian relief and hospital garments and supplies for the American Women's War Relief hospital in South Devonshire, England.

The war relief committee of the Vacation association, headed by Miss Anne Morgan and Miss Mary Parsons, has received $180,123, of which $32,500 came from the Filottis fund, and to which also the American fund for French wounded, the Secours national and the American Polish relief committee contributed.

The Belgian children have received 100,000 pairs of American made shoes, bought with $57,415 raised by the dollar Christmas fund, of which Henry Clews is chairman.

The American fund for French wounded, Mrs. Ethelbert Neris chairman, has collected $15,075; the La Fayette fund $102,124 for soldiers' wives; the Secours national $121,728 for French women and children and Belgian refugees; the fund for relief of women and children in France, Mrs. Whitely Warren chairman, $122,000; the Polish victim relief fund $33,000.

The American Jewish relief committee has collected $83,944, and the central Jewish committee $500,000 and the people's relief committee $80,000.

The American branch of the Deutschwehr sent $50,000 last month for Christmas presents for German children. It is helping to rebuild German territory devastated by the war.

Christmas Candy Marries. Among those who obtained marriage licenses recently at the courthouse at Harrisburg, Pa., was Christmas Candy, twenty-three years old, an engineer of Tyrone. He told the marriage license clerk that he was born on Christmas day and that his parents gave him the odd name for that reason.

TAXES IN OTHER PLACES. The Syracuse Journal last week published the following summary, which ought to be good reading for Fultonians:

Syracuse taxpayers who had to pay at the rate of $18.50 per $1,000 on assessments for city purposes in 1915, and have been paying at the rate of $7.76 for state and county purposes, ought to be thankful that they are not having to settle with the city treasurer of Port Jervis.

The combined tax rate there is $88.50 per $1,000, or $6.85 per $100. The combined tax rate in Syracuse is $2.728. Albany taxpayers escape having to pay the six mills, the joint rate in the Capital city being exactly $2.72 per $100.

According to reports received by the state board of tax commissioners, the rates of Binghamton are $3.15 a hundred; Buffalo, $4.09; Fulton, $3.54; Gloversville, $3.60; Hudson, $3.31; Ithaca, $2.98; Middletown, $3.44; Olean, $2.71; Oneida, $3.76; Rome, $3.42; Schenectady, $3.71; Troy, $3.26; Watertown, $3.21; Watervliet, $3.74.
