Fulton, N. Y.

The close of the deer hunting season shows that 3,000 bucks were killed in the woods of this state.
Many persons were killed, being mistaken for game, and 100 or more were wounded or crippled. This raises the question is the game worth the loss by death and injuries?

Chester Travis has received information from the public service commission at Albany, that his petition to operate a bus line from Oswego, through Fruit Valley, Southwest Oswego, Hamilton, Ira, Caro and Auburn has been granted. Mr.
Travis expects to start the line in the near future.

The spirit of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades of the State street school rendered the "Patriot's Party" at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening. The Contest of the Maxbauer was depicted in four scenes and the young people gave a perfect rendition that won them deserved compliments.

Mrs. Frederick Thorburgh of South Sixth street, entertained the all-around-the-Town club last Thursday evening. The members present were: Mrs. Edgar Hill, Mrs. Arthur Gillespie, Mrs. Earl Bidwell, Mrs.
Gilbert Draper, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Carlisle Fowler and Miss Marie Hoy and Mrs. Thorburgh, the hostess.

Oil soaked rags started a spontaneous combustion fire in Oswego about midnight Saturday that did $10,000 damage and endangered three business places and but for the efficient work of the fire department for an hour, a whole city block would have went up in smoke. The fire started in a garage and tire shop.
