Ancient City Charter The Charter of Liberties and Privileges, also called the 'Dongan's Charter,' was framed by a general assembly of freemen of the province of New York, October 17, 1683. The plan of the present city is based on this charter.

FIRST METHODIST: The service next Sunday evening is to be a union gathering in celebration of the eighth anniversary of the 18th Amendment. In this, several of the Protestant churches, the W. C. T. U. and other temperance organizations are to participate. In addition to two speakers, who will give brief addresses and some special music, there will be a motion picture reel on 'Snapshots of World-wide Alcoholism,' which is based on actual photographs taken in foreign countries. The meeting will be held in the assembly room of the church. At 11 a. m., there will be the regular morning worship with the sermon by Dr. Legg. The church school, with its departmental program, is at 10 a. m. At 8:30 p. m., the young people are to have a debate on 'Resolved, That the Honor System Should be Adopted at the High School.' The class meeting will also be at the same hour.

On Thursday evening, in union with the mid-week meeting, a Welcoming and Acquaintance Service is to be held. The large number who have been recently received into the church are to be the special guests. At 7:45 comes the devotional period, followed by words of welcome, social fellowship, light refreshments, and probably a motion picture reel or two. All members of the congregation and their friends are invited. The affair is purely informal and not exclusive. On Friday evening the Girls' Missionary Unit and the Zeta Beta class meet in the dining room for supper and at 7:30 the quarterly meeting of the Ladies' Aid is to be held.

PRESBYTERIAN: Sunday morning worship with sermon at 10:30; sermon by the pastor, subject, 'Making a New World.' The church school meets at noon. Y. P. meeting at 8:30 p. m. There will be a union service in the First M. E. church at 1:30. The Women's Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Steele and Mrs. E. Morrill, 180 South Third street, on Wednesday afternoon, at 3 p. m. Mrs. C. R. Baldwin will lead the devotions. Mrs. W. L. Forsyth will give the Current Topics, and Mrs. Lee Wilcox will present the program, her subject being 'A World Adventure.'

The Adult Bible class will meet on Thursday afternoon, with a picnic supper served at 5:30. Mid-week service on Thursday evening at 7:45. W. C. will continue the study of 'The Life of Christ,' taking chapters 9 and 10 this time.

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA: Regular services are held at the rooms of the Volunteers of America, 38 South Second street, every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings, at 8 o'clock. Also on Sundays at 3 and 8 p. m. These meetings are open to everybody. Good speakers and old gospel hymns are used.
