CONSTIPATED 30 YEARS AIDED BY OLD REMEDY
Stomach trouble is often helped by skipping one meal. Drink lots of water. Add a spoonful of Adierika each morning to clean out poisons in stomach and bowels. H. C. Gleaser, Druggist.

MARTVILLE.
The home of George Green, one and a half miles west of this village, was destroyed by fire on Monday, Feb. 5 with contents. Mr. and Mrs. Green were away at the time. The fire is believed to have been caused by a defective chimney. A small amount of insurance was carried on the house, but none on its contents. The house was a landmark, having been built nearly 100 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Green have set up headquarters in a shop nearby, which was saved.

On Wednesday, Feb. 6, fire again visited the village and destroyed the home of Robert Thompson, another landmark. The fire broke out about 1:30 and imperiled the lives of Mrs. Thompson and four small children, who were sleeping on the second floor. Mrs. Thompson succeeded in carrying them to safety. The fire companies of Cairo, Hannibal and Red Creek were called and after hard work succeeded in saving other buildings. The home of Mr. Douglas nearby was among the buildings saved. Mr. Douglas has been confined to his room for several weeks and suffered from shock, but after being treated by a physician is resting comfortably. Only the furnishings of the living room of the Thompson home were saved.
