

TERESA FERLITO
CANDIDATE FOR ASSESSOR

Teresa Ferlito has announced her candidacy for Assessor in the Town of Minetto. Mrs. Ferlito is hopeful of gaining one of the four-year seats in the November 8 election. She will be running on both the Democratic and Independent lines.

A graduate of SUNY Oswego, Mrs. Ferlito holds a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration complimented by studies in Computer Science.

She has been active in civic groups; most recently serving two years as Treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Minetto Cooperative Preschool until June '83. Previous to that she was employed as a receptionist and clerk at a local bank.

Mrs. Ferlito states: "I see the Board of Assessors as one extension of local government. Any input I may give as an assessor will be directed toward promoting better growth and development in the town. I hope to apply the fundamentals of my education and experiences, and the qualities of fairness and sensibility in performing the assessor's duties."

Mrs. Ferlito resides on W. River Road with her husband and two children. Also, she is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Angelo Galletta of Oswego. Her other interests include bowling, sewing, crafts and piano.
