JEWELRY JOTTINGS

By Jim Schneider

A source of beautiful natural black opals was discovered in 1900. Before that, attempts were made to color opals with ink or dark oils to produce a "black" stone, which could be sold at fraudulantly high prices.

Let us be your gem expert. You can depend on our integrity when you buy from us. We'll help you make a choice that will insure your satisfaction.

ASK SNOOPY SCHNAUZER

Dear Snoopy Schnauzer:
 I've heard of a color called Isabella. What is it?
 Liz

Dear Liz:
 It's a fawn or light bay color.
 Good luck,
 S.S.

Dear Snoopy Schnauzer:
 What is a saddle on a dog?
 T.J.

Dear T.J.:
 It is a dark marking on the back. It looks like a saddle.
 S.S.

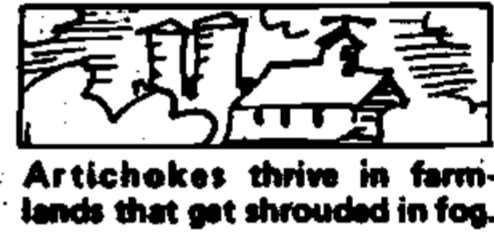

Dear Snoopy Schnauzer:
 Is a police dog only a German Shepard?
 Terry

Dear Terry:
 No. A police dog is a dog trained for police work and can be of various breeds.
 Good luck
 S.S.

YMCA TO SPONSOR RUNNING CLINIC

The Oswego YMCA will sponsor a Running Clinic for all runners, from beginning to expert, on Thursday March 2, 1978 at 7:30 p.m. A film presentation called "Run Dick, Run Jane" will start the evenings activities and will be followed by the featured speaker, Dr. Donald Maron, awarded sports podiatrist who specializes in running. A panel discussion and question and answer period conducted by local runners will conclude the clinic. "Sports Afoot" of Oswego will also provide a display of the latest running shoes. This clinic is open to the public. For further information contact Neil Jochen or Judy Talbot at the "Y", 343-1981, weekdays between 9 and 5. The Oswego YMCA is a United Way Agency.

Artichokes thrive in farmlands that get shrouded in fog.

SPRING SEWING CLASSES

The Home Economics Division of Cooperative Extension will conduct sewing classes at four locations in the county during the first week of March. Taught by Susan Kovac, Cooperative Extension Agent, the theme for the classes will be "Sewing Potpourri." Class participants are asked to bring an unfinished sewing project or some materials to begin a new project. Problems and questions will be answered as well as demonstrations on mending, interfacing, zipper repairs, and seam finishes. A preview of spring fabrics and new sewing ideas will also be included.

All classes will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the following locations
 Mon. Mar. 6 Mexico Methodist Church, Church Street, Mexico, NY
 Tue., Mar. 7, Constantia Methodist Church, Constantia, N.Y.
 Wed. Mar. 8, Snow Memorial Building Pulaski, N.Y.
 Thurs., Mar. 9 Minetto Methodist Church, Minetto, N.Y.

Everyone is asked to bring a brown bag lunch, coffee will be provided. All classes are offered free of charge, but registration is required. To register contact the Home Economics Division, Main Street, Mexico, 963-7286 or 343-4744 by March 3rd.
