FIFTH ANNUAL YMCA
CHARITY BALL TO BE HELD FEB. 9

The Fifth Annual YMCA Charity Ball
will be held on Saturday, Feb. 9
at the Oswego Elk's Clubrooms. All the youth programs at the local YMCA will benefit from the money raised at the Ball.

Chairmen for the event are Mr. Ralph Bechard and Dr.
Paul Hutko and this year's theme will be "Love". Music will be provided by Nick Sterio and his orchestra from 9 - 1 for your
dancing pleasure.
A light buffet will be served and door
prizes awarded during the festivities.

Tickets will be available at the YMCA, 343-1981;
or from any YMCA
Board of Directors
member. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Richard Palmer, 343-0254 or Mrs. Robert Hurlbutt, 343-0052.

This ball has in the past been one of the highlights of the YMCA activities and the entire community is invited to join in this worthy
benefit and an extremely good time.

A chameleon can roll its eyes independently in any direction, so that one eye may be looking at a fly in front of it, while the other keeps watch over the animal's shoulder.

Early gliders had to be towed by early cars to get off the ground. They were really up in the air.
