TO TRAVELLERS GOING EAST & SOUTH.

UTICA AND TROY, AND TROY AND GREENBUSH Rail Roads.—In connection with the Daily Trains on the Springfield and Boston Rail Road, and the Steamboats on the Hudson river. Continuous Rail Road Track from Utica to Boston via Troy, crossing the Hudson by the Rail Road Bridge at TROY.

Passengers passing on any portion of the Boston & Springfield Rail Road, will avoid the detention and Ferry at Albany, by taking Tickets through to Troy, and from Troy taking the Greenbush Rail Road, which leaves River-street, Troy, at 6 o'clock A. M., and 1 P. M., connecting with the runs on the Boston Road, east from the Hudson river.

☞ Baggage ticketed thro' to Troy without change.

HUDSON RIVER

Passengers going down the Hudson river, will save expense for Baggage, avoid the long travel from the Rail Road Depot in Albany, to the Steamboat landing, and the nuisance of a horde of Porters, Runners, &c. by taking tickets at Utica or Schenectady through to Troy, where they are landed at the Steamboat wharf, and where they are always sure of the first choice of Berths and State Rooms.

The boats always wait at Troy until the arrival of the regular morning and evening trains of cars from the west, and the fare is always as low by this route as by Albany, and it is decidedly the pleasantest.

CAUTION.—The travelling public are cautioned against the misrepresentations of the monopoly and Albany runners employed to misrepresent and decoy passengers from the Troy route.

The following new and splendid boats, or "floating palaces," as they are justly termed, compose the Troy and New York line of steam boats, on the Hudson, and are as follows:

Night line from Troy direct to New York.

The EMPIRE, Capt. R. B. Macy, leaves Troy at 5 P. M. every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The COLUMBIA, Capt. Peck, leaves Troy at 5 P. M. every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

Morning line from Troy to New York.

The TROY, Capt. A. Gorham, leaves Troy at 6 A. M. every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The NIAGARA, Capt. A. DeGroot, leaves Troy at 6 A. M. every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday.

Baggage taken free to and from the cars and boats.

The railroad from Schenectady to Greenbush, via Troy, is new, and laid the entire length with the heaviest H rail, and is among the best of any in the country; and the traveller should bear in mind that if it were not for this route, he would have to submit to the impositions which were formerly practiced in Albany, and pay the old high rate of fare.

☞ Fare from Schenectady to Troy, Greenbush or Albany, 50 cents, or as low as by any other route.

LAKE ONTARIO ROUTE.

1845. 1845.

CAUTION.—The travelling public are cautioned against paying Fare at Albany, Troy, Schenectady and Utica any further west than Syracuse, or suffering their baggage to be put in the cars going west of Syracuse, as there are other means of conveyance from that place to Rochester, Lewiston, Niagara Falls and Buffalo much pleasanter and cheaper.

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY. A prevailing listlessness on the important subject of Life Insurance, seems to have seized upon the minds of many of our good citizens. It can be accounted for on no other ground than a want of a clear understanding of the principles on which the system is based, and the benefits to be derived from it. If information on these points shall be wanted, it will give the subscriber great pleasure to furnish it, to any and all who will wait upon him, at his Law Office in Washington Hall; and he promises to do what he can to convince the fastidious, that the subject is worthy of consideration—the conscientious, that the arguments which justify Fire Insurance, will apply with equal truth and effect to Life Insurance—the provident, that the one is as important to him as the other: and to all whether rich or poor, that it may be made available for good to families, friends, Literary, Charitable, or other institutions, which may survive the insured, so that in death his benevolence shall live to bless many. J. H. RATHBONE, Agent.

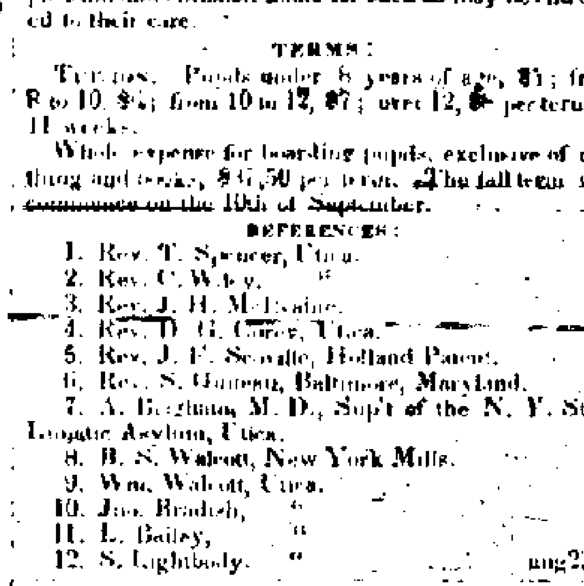
CRARY'S AMBREINE CREAM.—

Use Crary's Ambreine Cream, & your skin will be as FAIR as mine. | Why! what did you use to make your skin so fair! You were as dark complexioned as I am.

FOR THE TOILET



AND THE NURSERY.

The Ambreine Cream is prepared with great care, expressly for beautifying the complexion. It not only removes tan, freckles, pimples, sallowness, &c. of long standing, but will prevent them by its mild and soothing qualities—for in the Cream the alkaline substances are neutralized, and after washing it leaves the skin soft, moist and smooth.

It is decidedly the best article now in use for the nursery; it is mild and soothing to the skin, and the use of it will prevent many of the deformities of the skin, such as Sallowness, Freckles, &c., caused by washing children with hard caustic soaps.

Sold at wholesale by the proprietor, N. A. CRARY, Lowell, Mass., and by T. K. BUTLER, No. 114 Genesee st., Utica. sep12:12w

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

From the Argus.

We were shown yesterday, a remarkably fine specimen of the perfection to which the art of Daguerreotyping has attained in the hands of Messrs. WALKER & GAVIT, of this city. It was a portrait of Gov Wright. The expression and features were of course to the life; but the exquisite gradations of light and shadow, and the painter-like effect, could scarce be surpassed.

From the Evening Journal.

DAGUERREOTYPE.—Messrs. Walker & Gavit take a very splendid Frame of Daguerreotype Portraits for exhibition to the State Fair. The likenesses are remarkably faithful, and the pictures, in their finish, show a great improvement in this department of the Fine Arts.

From the American Citizen.

One of the best daguerreotypes we have ever seen, is a portrait of Gov. Wright, taken a few days since by Messrs. Walker & Gavit, of this city. It is an admirable likeness.

Hundreds of testimonials can be given, and we respectfully invite all to call and examine specimens for themselves.

Dr. Conver's Invigorating CORDIAL, FOR GENITAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINENCE OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c.

THIS celebrated and powerful remedy has long been used with most happy effect in the practice of the most eminent physicians and surgeons in the British empire, France and Germany. Indeed, so remarkable were the cures, that the late 'Sir Astley' [illegible] it as that 'harbinger of life.' The use of this 'Cordial' fully [illegible] the high encomium. The highest medical authority in the United States recommend it as superior to any other article for the permanent cure of the above distressing complaints. The proprietor does not offer this remedy as a Catholicon, but as a specific for the following deplorable affections, viz:—(the consequences of early, indiscreet, secret habits of youth, and excessive indulgence of the passions in riper years) general physical prostration, nervous irritability, torpor of the liver, dyspepsia, loss of muscular energy, weakness of back and lower extremities, lassitude, nocturnal emissions, gleets, and impotency, of premature and total decay of virility, melancholy, aberration of mind, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, dimness of vision, pain in the head, vertigo and lunacy, aversion to social intercourse, timidity, self distrust, and love of solitude, rendering the man isolated and miserable. Hundreds of cases of sudden decline or consumption may be traced to the above baneful practices. Young men in cities, and particularly in the country, where those solitary habits prevail to an alarming extent, and those, too, whose matrimonial alliances have not been productive of those happy results which should attend the connubial state, will perceive that this advertisement treats of an important subject to them. If you would be relieved from the above named evils, and be restored to manly vigor, delay not to procure this cordial. The hints and full directions which accompany the medicine are highly important to the married and single. Price per bottle $2, or $20 per dozen.

N. B.—Strangers in the city, before leaving, should [illegible] found efficient service in a warm and debilitating climate, where these disorders are greatly aggravated, and the system rapidly decays.

The physician may be consulted if desired. Entrance to the office through the store.

Sold wholesale and retail by J. O. PAT, 236 Fulton street, (Lamp store) Sun building, New York.

☞ The 'Cordial' will be forwarded to any part of the city or county by addressing as above, post paid, amount enclosed.

Also for sale by J. B. MARCHISI, Utica. sep9dac3m

THE GREAT AMERICAN REMEDY FOR THE CURE OF THE DROPSY, GRAVEL, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, AND ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE URINARY ORGANS.

Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture, in the cure of the above classes of complaints stands alone. In the whole catalogue of diseases there are none of a more distressing character than they, and strange as it may seem, not an article has before been offered which can afford even a palliative in the above painful truly distressing complaints.

The proprietor of Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic has years since tested its virtues in the complaints which it is advertised to cure, and after a fair trial of three years before the public, during which it has been submitted to test under all circumstances, he is prepared to say there is no medicine in the world which will compare with it, the relief given in every case is proof that it has no equal in all the advertised medical compounds—its curative power always manifesting itself in the use of the first bottle. Certificates of cures are on the wrapper around the bottle—and hundreds might be added if necessary. In that hitherto incurable disease of dropsy, in all its forms, this medicine is an invariable remedy—if followed up according to directions a cure will be the result. As a proof of this statement the singular and prompt action of the first bottle administered is offered. In all female complaints, debility, weakness, suppressions, fluor albus, &c., &c., this medicine may be resorted to with a confidence of a restoration to health; in this class of complaints it has been singularly efficacious.

IN CASES OF GRAVEL

Vaughn's Lithontriptic Mixture has given relief when all other means have failed, and often the first dose would do wonders, and so many forms does the gravel present itself in that a bottle or more will have to be taken before the relief which is sure to follow will be obtained. This painful complaint has been relieved in many instances by this remedy after ten years trial of all other palliatives, so called, with no effect. It acts as a dissolvent of the calculi, heals all irritation or inflammation of the bladder, gives new and healthy action to the kidneys; and, in fine restores completely to health the bad state of the urinary organs. In all liver complaints it stands unrivalled in its purifying properties, acting as it does upon the blood, it is without an equal. Purely vegetable, it may be relied upon as a safe yet extremely active purifier of the system; being, therefore, a most sovereign remedy in all cutaneous affections.

IN DROPSY

The evacuation of all water from the system will commence with the first trial of the article, as the first bottle will afford the desired relief—follow it up and you are well. In Gravel, diseases of the kidneys, &c., it may be resorted to with equal faith in its singular powers and by young and old with safety and confidence.

Directions on the bottle are to be strictly followed; please to observe the article is put up in square quart bottles, with "Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture, Buffalo," blown in the glass, sealed with the proprietor's name on the cork, and also written under the directions, put up in neat wrappers and for sale at $3 per bottle at the following druggists, where pamphlets may be had gratis which accompany this medicine, and it is earnestly requested that all interested will call and obtain them. DR. FOORD'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

THE diseases which the Pectoral Syrup is peculiarly adapted to relieve are Common Colds and Coughs from whatever cause, Catarrh, Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hooping Cough, Pleurisy, Inflammation of the lungs and Consumption, in every stage of its progress,—thus reaching nearly every disease of the lungs and throat.

Of the elegance and superior efficacy of this medicine it is almost superfluous to speak, on account of the reputation it has gained for itself within the last two years wherever it has been used.

It immediately eases pain, and relieves restlessness where any exists, quiets and loosens the cough, promotes a discharge of phlegm, and relieves fever—and all this without preceding or following its use with any other remedy. It contains no deleterious ingredients, so that it is never necessary on account of taking it, to use any other medicine to carry it out of the system. Its effects therefore on all accounts are the most certain and desirable of any medicine he has ever known used for that class of complaints.

This syrup is decidedly the most valuable family medicine ever used in this country for Colds and Asthmatic attacks, which are commonly called a Rising of the Lungs in children, and it is so pleasant that they will often take it as readily as they would honey, and ask for more.

N. B. Directions in regard to the average dose, and the times for taking it, will be found on each bottle.—For a further account of this really valuable remedy which ought to be in every family at this season of the year, read the following certificates from those who have used it.

CERTIFICATES.

I certify that I have had a disease of the lungs and side two or three times, within a year and a half, attended with a hard cough, difficulty of breathing, and pain in the left side—and that each attack was very soon removed by a few doses of Dr. Foord's Pectoral Syrup. I feel confident that it is an invaluable medicine for all diseases of the lungs and throat attended with cough.
Cazenovia, Feb. 20, 1841. DEA. S. MUNSON.

I think Doct. Foord's Pectoral Syrup the best medicine I have ever used for relieving Coughs, and quieting irritation and oppression of the lungs and throat.—It has been used in my family with excellent effect, and I regard it decidedly preferable to most other medicines recommended for like purposes.
Cazenovia, Feb. 18, 1841. C. JENKINS.

[From Rev. Zechariah Paddock.]
CAZENOVIA, June 3, 1841.

Dear Sir—Having used personally, and in my family, two or three bottles of your Pectoral Syrup, I feel myself authorized, indeed bound in duty, to speak in high terms of the article. For hoarseness, which with me, as a public speaker, has been a most formidable difficulty, I have never found any thing like it. In diseases of the lungs and other parts of the vocal organs, its effects are most grateful and salutary. Its remarkable palatableness—being very little more offensive than pure honey,—consider one of its smallest recommendations. In a word, I am persuaded that were its virtues and its conveniences known to the public, it would have an extensive sale. Very Respectfully,
Z. PADDOCK.

"There is not however any honey in it." A. F.

DEAR SIR—Having witnessed in my family the good effects of your Pectoral Syrup and Universal Pills I would cheerfully recommend them as highly valuable family medicines. J. D. PIXLEY.
Pastor of Baptist Church, Fenner.
December 25, 1841.

Let all those who are afflicted, and in want of a pulmonary medicine, try this Syrup. There is none in the world as good. This is saying nothing but what is true; do not be palmed off with worthless stuff, but call for Dr. Foord's PECTORAL SYRUP; it will help you, and cure you when all other articles have failed.

For sale by FOSTER & DICKINSON, at the City Drug Store, 117 Genesee street, and by J. E. Warner & Co., Jas. C. Wells, David Hunt, and J. B. Marchisi, of this city, and by Druggists and others throughout the country. sep23-1y

PROOFS OF THE EFFICACY OF VAUGHN'S VEGETABLE LITHONTRIPTIC MIXTURE—Can be obtained by calling upon the agents and getting one of the pamphlets. The singular case of Mrs. Susannah Holbrook, who herself testifies to her own cure, is a most remarkable one [illegible] her recovery by [illegible] of Medical gentlemen; her complaint was Dropsy; and yet she was perfectly cured by TWO BOTTLES ONLY of Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture; the particulars will be found in the pamphlet. The remarkable cure of Henry Varlen will be read with great interest. He had suffered for more than a year with Dropsy—it at last increased to a most alarming degree—he was TAPPED EIGHT TIMES and over SIXTY GALLONS OF WATER TAKEN FROM HIM—wore a silver tube in his side, which caused inflammation, and would have died, as he states over his own signature, had it not been for Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic—eight bottles made him a well man; he is now a robust farmer. Testimonials without number could be added, but the proprietor solicits a trial; this will satisfy the most incredulous, as the parties who publish their names in the papers cannot be known to all who read.

Reader! if you, or your friends know of a case of Dropsy, or Gravel, a disease of the worst nature, you will confer an obligation upon suffering humanity, which can never be cancelled, by naming Vaughn's Vegetable Lithontriptic Mixture, as a sure remedy. Inflammation of the Bladder, all Urinary affections treated with certain success. Buy only of the Agents advertised in this paper, under the "Great American Remedy." [Aug 20
