

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray of Niggerville have rented the Ross Blakes' home at Bowens Corners, having moved in this last Monday.

Mrs. Homer Ives of W. River Road, S., has been confined to her home the past several days due to an automobile accident, last Thursday evening. Mrs. Ives and Mrs. Freda Wilcox had attended the Wilcox District P.T.A. meeting and were enroute home when the accident occurred, the Ives' car being struck by another vehicle, according to our informant.

The four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ware received painful injuries, last week, when his hand became entangled in the wringer of a washing machine. After several days in the hospital, he is now at home with practically all of his body in a cast. He will, in a few weeks, return to the hospital for further surgery.

Patricia Wellwood of Clifford spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wellwood of West River Road, North.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Cronk of Mexico called on Mr. and Mrs. Auringer of the Silk Road, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Palmer of Jacksonville Rd. are serving on Grand Jury in Oswego this term. Mrs. Leslie Marley of the Hannibal Road is also serving on the jury.

Miss Georgeanne DonHauser spent last week-end with her family of R.D.3.

Shelia Osborn of Fulton is studying harp with Mrs. Farron Cooper of the Ware Road. Pearl taught this instrument for many years and has recently resumed instruction of local pupils. If we may be facetious for a moment, we'd like to point out that a few of you who don't expect to receive free instruction, in the hereafter, might be interested in lessons now.

A large group attended a meeting of The Leading Light Class of Little Utica Church, last Sunday evening, when it met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brewster Paine, County Line Road.

Mrs. Martin Rice of Sharps Corners Road wishes to thank all of you who remembered her while she was in St. Joseph's Hospital, Syracuse.

Miss Susie Barnes has returned to Fulton after having spent two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rumsey, Jacksonville Road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hough of Clifford are the parents of a daughter, Merry Carol, born on Christmas morn. A very appropriate name and a nice-sounding one, too, don't you all agree?

Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Bruce and Christine of Pennellville, enjoyed dinner, New Year's Day, with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Luke, Cheryl and Timothy, of the County Line Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Calder Wood of Granby Center saw the Old Year out and the New Year in with Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Runions of Palermo, Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Jackson of Oswego, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Jackson, and Miss Mabel Crawford of Fulton. Cards were played until the New Year, at which time lunch was served.

Mrs. Wm. Dingle and Mrs. Farron Cooper of the Ware Road attended a Unit meeting at the home of Mrs. George Mansfield, Fulton, on Thursday evening. The ladies are all Congregationalists.

Mrs. Nellie Gay of Minetto, Carrie Abbott and Chet Dotson of Bowens Corners called on Mrs. Mary Cronk of Crosby Hill, last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Cook of North Volney Road purchased a new television set, just before the holidays, and Nellie tells us that they're real stay-at-homes now. You know, we've heard that same comment from practically everyone who owns a television set. Fortunately for the parents, most of the stations go off the air around ten-thirty. Otherwise, the youngsters never would get to bed on school nights.

What's going on in your neighborhood? Won't someone in Dexterville, Lewis Corners and Volney Center send us news once in a while?
