

Raymond M. Austin of Cody has been notified that he is the county winner in the DeKalb Hybrid 5-acre corn growing contest. Several thousand entries were made from twenty-two states and Canada in this twelfth annual national DeKalb contest. Mr. Austin's name, together with the yield of 112.03 bushels per acre, will be etched on a bronze plaque mounted on solid walnut which will be presented to him, shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ware thank all of you who contributed to the Sunshine Basket received by their son, Jerry, this past week. Jerry's accident with the wringer happened the Monday before Christmas, instead of last week as we told you in our last issue. He returned to Lee Memorial Hospital for treatments this past week and was there for a couple of days, returning home Wednesday morning.

Oliver Bordau of the Dutton Road returned home this week from the hospital and is recuperating from the operation he underwent of Jan. 9 at Lee Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Marion Bowen wishes to thank you folks for the assistance given the family, following the tragic fire at her home. Mrs. Bowen is staying with her brother, Russell Tallman, in Syracuse, where she is still partially incapacitated due to frost bitten feet and a severe hand incision, incurred during the fire. Mr. Henry VanBuren is also staying in Syracuse and is nursing painfully cut hands. Laura VanBuren is visiting the Jonathan Tallmans, Volney-Phoenix Road, and is back at her classes in the Wilcox District School.

Mrs. Calder Wood of Granby Center entertained friends and members of the local Mothers Club at her home, last evening. Cards were played, with prizes being awarded and refreshments served. Any women in the community interested in the local school are cordially invited to join the Mothers Club of District 7.

Tomorrow night's the night of the dance at Lamson Grange, Jacksonville. Millard Blakeslee's orchestra will play.

All boys interested in joining 4-H Club are welcome to join the newly-organized Neahtawantah 4-H Club which will hold its next meeting, February 3rd at 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hackett, Fulton-Niggerville Rd. Since there are no 4-H Clubs at Bowens Cors., Granby Center, Dexterville and Niggerville, it is hoped that boys living in those communities will be interested in the Neahtawantah 4-H Club. Any of you parents who want further information, call Roy McGuire, Fulton 56-F-1.
