

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hudson of West Granby, who are wintering in Florida, have moved their trailer from El Punto in Orlando to Moore Haven on Lake Okeechobee. That's the place the big fish are to be found and Dan's planning to catch his share while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ware are now back in their home again and Mrs. Ware is feeling much better these days. You'll recall that the Ware home was practically wrecked by the storm of last Thanksgiving week-end. Work on the inside of the house is now nearly completed.

Mrs. Guy Rumsey of the Jacksonville Road entertained the Good Times Birthday Club at a one o'clock dinner, this past Wednesday, the fourteenth. Valentine's Day was Mrs. Rumsey's birthday!

Mrs. H. E. Spaulding of E. River Road, N. and Mrs. Roy Ensworth of Fulton left Sunday for Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mace and Connie Hayden motored to Bath Veterans Hospital, Sunday, to visit Robert Hayden. He's feeling better now.

Mrs. Dorothy Beardsley of W. First St. N. is enrolled for graduate work at Syracuse University. Her mother, Mrs. Laura Clark, resigned her position at Armstrong Cork Co. where she was in charge of the cafeteria, to care for her two grandsons.

Mrs. George Morgan of Marcellus spent Monday and Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ostrander of R. D. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Weston of Whitcomb Tract are the parents of a son born last Wednesday in Lee Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Rogers of Hannibal is spending a few days with her daughter and family, the Frederick Blakes of Bowens Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Farron Cooper of the Ware Road spent an afternoon and evening last week with Mr. and Mrs. Burton Avery of Central Square.

Mrs. Lester Welch of Cody District entertained her mother, Mrs. Nora Palmer of Jacksonville Road, over the week-end.

Miss June Howard of R. D. 4 passed the week-end in Syracuse with her cousin. Her sister, Shirley, spent the week-end in Fulton with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Howard.

The McGuire twins are now home from the hospital and their brothers and sisters are pretty pleased with the infants. With all the family so greatly interested in 4-H Club work, we're anxious to see what the twins have as their project for the coming year. Or, maybe they'll be contented to be mascots of the Neahtawanta 4-H Club this season.

Mrs. Enos Lamb of Forest Avenue and Florida sends word back North that she's feeling much better now, though not entirely well yet. Mrs. Elsie Atwater and Mrs. Edith Chillson are renting one of the Lambs' Florida cottages for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Woodward of Forest Avenue are wintering at the El Punto Trailer Camp in Orlando, Florida. The fellow who is Bill's fellow businessman across the road in Fulton, Floyd Cole of the Fulton Spring Co., is also down south for the cold months.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore spent Friday evening at the Floyd Coats home, County Line Road.

Mr. and Mrs. William Geers of West 11th Street wish to thank friends and neighbors who have been so kind to their daughter, Carole, who has been a Polio patient in Syracuse City Hospital since November 20th. Carole was nine years old on February 8th, a fact which was remembered by Enid and Kathleen Yager and for which the Geers wish to extend special thanks. Carole hopes to be home before long but first must undergo an operation on her arm, this week. She is now able to walk.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Green and sons of Palermo Center were Sunday callers at the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barnes of East Palermo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Stewart of E. River Road North were supper guests of the Ernest Stewarts, West River Road, S., Friday evening, in honor of the former's birthday.

Diane Smith of Mexico spent last week-end with her uncle and aunt, the Adrian Woodings of the Jacksonville Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halstead of Fulton spent Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fuller of the Bowens-Fulton Road.

Howard Arnold of Bowens Corners is in Albany attending a meeting of county officials. He'll be back home this week-end, it being a 3-day meeting.

And now, what's new and exciting at your house?