

Young Herbie Perkins of W. Eleventh St. has been having a wretched time this past week. Herbie is just four and a half years old and he's at the stage where things just seem to happen. Some Gremlin put a kernel of corn in Herbie's ear and his parents had to take him to the Oswego Hospital, last Saturday, to have the kernel removed. The ether made him groggy for the rest of the day but Sunday found him 'on the go' again.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleatus Loveall of Granby-Minetto Road are the parents of a son born Sunday at Lee Memorial Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Palmer of Jacksonville Rd. spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Palmer. The ladies did some 'scientific' card playing and gave the brothers a few pointers on how to play the game. As usual, the fellows were more interested in hunting talk than piling up score. As we recall it, those men don't just talk about it, they actually bring home 'the bacon' when they go hunting.

Mrs. Clarence Dawley, East Cattrack Road, celebrated her twenty-fifth birthday last Friday. Saturday night found the Dawleys 'tripping the light fantastic' at the Granby Center Fire Hall, in celebration of their seventh wedding anniversary on February 19th, as well as 'the missus' birthday.

Little Miss Carol Ann Zarichny, West River Road, North, was hostess at a party, last Saturday, celebrating her third birthday. Enjoying Carol's party were Carol Ann Frawley, Beth Woodard, Nancy Penkala, Dyann Pollack, Yvonne Frawley, James Zarichny and Russell Zarichny, Junior. Carol Ann received many nice gifts and the party was a complete success, lasting from mid-afternoon until seven in the evening.

Miss Ethel Standish of Medina, N.Y. was a recent week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pittard of Bowens-Fulton Road.

Herman Moore, R.D. 4, called at Wayne Burton's, in Phoenix, last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Ernest Whipple of Johnny Cake Lane called on Mrs. William Austin of Fulton, Thursday. She hasn't been feeling well of late.

Mike and Tom Gadziala of Fulton were Sunday callers at Judd Allen's and Earl Rumsey's, on Jacksonville Road.

The family of the late Mrs. Cora Smith of Dexter ville wish to thank neighbors for the many kindnesses extended.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sorbello attended the funeral of their niece, Betty Jane Manassari, last Friday morning at Oswego. Betty Jane was just eleven years old.

Mrs. Harold Sylvester of Fulton called on Mrs. Ida Moore, R.D. 4, last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Libby, Glenn Libby, Arthur Temple and Miss Helen Temple, of Cody District were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. George Libby of Syracuse.

Every once in a while someone phones us or writes us a card to ask how it happens that they receive our paper and to inquire as to how much it costs and when we're going to send them a bill for it. For the benefit of newcomers to the rural area we'd like to say that we mail the Oswego Valley Rural News to you, free-of-charge, each Friday. We depend entirely on the advertising to cover cost of the publication and mailing. We depend entirely on you, each and every one of you, to phone or mail us your news each week. We have no paid reporters. In fact, the paper is the work of two individuals (we print it in our basement) and we sincerely hope that you all enjoy reading it each week. We know that a great many of you like it, for you tell us so. Won't you send us news from your own home or community? We hope you'll tell the merchants that you read their ads in the Rural News. We realize that Fulton stores may not always have everything you want but we do think that, if you'll give them half a chance, the local merchants can supply most of the things you need.
