

Mr. and Mrs. Fay King have returned to their home in Bowens Corners after having spent the past three months with friends and relatives in Michigan.

Friends of Mrs. Olo Simons Mack will be pleased to know that she wishes to be remembered to them. Just in case you'd like to write her a line, her address is 829 Lake Street, Reno, Nevada.

Earl Williamson and Al Koes were named first and second assistant fire chiefs, respectively, of the Granby Center Fire Department when the volunteers met a week ago Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haven of Ridge Road are the parents of a daughter, Barbara Brace Haven, born last Wednesday in Lee Memorial Hospital. Betty's home from the hospital but the infant is in Syracuse, due to a temporary local housing shortage. By word of explanation, little Barbara requires her own special incubator for a few days yet.

Cards have been received announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Tyler of Gabriels. The infant is a great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Osborne of Rowlee Road. Matter of fact, this is the Osbornes' 33th great-grandchild. Quite a record!

Pfc. Edwin Smith arrived home last Sunday morning, surprising his parents, after a plane trip from the West Coast to Newark, N.J., a train journey from New York to Syracuse and a auto ride to Fulton with a friend. Ed's been overseas for several months and has seen action with the Marines in Korea. He's now on 30-day leave, following which he will go to Paris Island where he is scheduled to have an assignment as instructor.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlon J. Loomis of R.D.4 have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gertrude Joanne Loomis, to Paul James Lindsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Loomis of Marcellus. Miss Loomis is a graduate of Mexico Academy & Central School. Mr. Lindsley attended Christian Brothers Academy, Syracuse, and was graduated from Fulton High School. The wedding will take place on March 31st.

Miss Faustina Dunn, W. River Road, S., enjoyed a very pleasant birthday, last Sunday, having been a guest of the Ernest Stewarts, W. River Road, S., for dinner and having received cards and gifts from friends during the evening. We understand that fifteen guests participated in the dinner.

Robert Hayden has returned from the Veteran's Hospital at Bath, N.Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thompson of R.D.3 are parents of a son born Monday at Lee Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Ernest Palmer of Jacksonville Road has been promoted to the position of Inspector in the Incoming Inspection section of the General Electric Plant.

Our sympathies are with Connie Hayden. It's chickenpox,

The Granby Center Volunteer Firemen have tentatively set the dates for their Field Days as July 27th & 28th

Mr. Nelson of Moravia has purchased the Paddock Farm near Mount Pleasant. That reminds us, scarcely a week goes by that someone doesn't visit the Rural News office, inquiring about property in the rural area. If any of you folks have a few acres, or even a lot or two, to sell why don't you list it?

Don Marley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marley of Schoolmaker Road, spent the week-end at home with the folks. Don has been at Langley Field for a month now and is in hopes of being able to get home every few weeks. He's with the 2220th Field Printing Squadron.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Dunn of the Central Square Road wish to thank all of you who were so kind during the hospitalization of their son. Arthur is now home from the hospital, after having been laid up for 11 weeks, and he's feeling better, though he'll still have to continue with treatments. Since he's not able to get out and around like the other youngsters, cheer up cards and books are still appreciated. Arthur is now thirteen years old.

Arthur Campbell, Superintendent of Granby Township, presided at this past Wednesday's meeting of the Oswego County Town Superintendent's Association, when it met at the Hotel in Hannibal for dinner. Films by the Du Pont Company were shown on Weed Control.

Unless we're mistaken, Mrs. William Fox of West River Road, S. celebrated her birthday last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Springer, Miss Edna Springer and Miss Virginia Miner of Vermillion were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Berry of the Hannibal Road. For a fellow who didn't care anything about television, Ralph surely has developed into a real T-V fan since he got his own set. Isn't that the way it is with most of us!

Mr. and Mrs. Farron Cooper of the Ware Road drove to Webster, Sunday, and had dinner with their daughter and family, the Robert Hunters. They also called on friends in Rochester.

Mrs. Michael Johnson of the Hannibal Road is visiting relatives in New Jersey. Miss Betty Neeley and Mrs. Leslie Marley motored to Camden with Mrs. Johnson last Friday and returned this past Tuesday. Mrs. Johnson has been ill most of the winter but is feeling better.

Miss Kathryn Raymond celebrated her twelfth birthday on March 8th with a party at her home in Palermo. The flu bug laid low some of the invited guests but the ones who were able to come sure had a grand time.

Must be the boys from Camp-of-Fun Altime at Oswegatchie plan on catching the limit of trout this season for we saw Ernest and Howard Palmer out shopping for a bottled gas range the other day.

Roy Austin of Cody District is spending this week in the state capitol. And, how're things down there, Roy?
