57 Years Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Burton of the Volney-Phoenix Rd. really had something to celebrate at their home, Feb. 23rd. It was their 57th wedding anniversary. The celebration was a quiet one, Wednesday afternoon, but none the less enjoyable. Present were only their own family, their two daughters, Mrs. Gervis Sikes of Volney Center and Mrs. Asa Williams of Phoenix, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burton of Emery Rd. Mrs. Williams made and decorated a cake for her parents. Ice cream and cake were served. Mr. Burton, a retired farmer, is not in too good health at the present, but Mrs. Burton seems as "chipper" as ever. The couple was married at the parsonage of the Congregational Church at Bristol Hill by the Rev. Alwood. Mr. and Mrs. Burton (she is the former Miss Belle Brown) have resided at their farm home for 56 years. The Burtons received many congratulatory cards and some attractive gifts to commemorate the occasion.

Mrs. Clara Hamilton, Park St., is staying with Mrs. Myrtle Kinney of Academy St. Mrs. Kinney is recuperating from her recent hospitalization in Lee Memorial.
