During the Christmas vacation the young bowlers at the Bowlarama participated in a singles and doubles tournament. After the checking was finished, and the results tabulated, the champions were listed. Heading the list, and it was difficult to determine whether to start with the Bantams, the 11 to 13 year olds or the seniors 16 and over. However decided the seniors should have the seniority and so ladies before gentlemen with Ruth Hallows games of 112, 213 and 145 plus her handicap gave her a 573 total. Ruth is a pupil in the Hannibal high school and an all-round athlete. Gloria Belson 17 of the Fulton High girls was runner up with 552. For the boys Dave Schoolcraft of the Hannibal High group turned in a 461 with Bell Getz, 16, turning in a 415 scratch.

Wrestlers Rally for Win Over Central Square, 25-23

Steadily improving since the start of the season the Fulton High School wrestlers came into their own last Thursday evening to notch a 25-23 win over visiting Central Square.

It took a Frank Merriwell finish to accomplish their feat as Coach Distin's grapplers will host East Syracuse at Fairgrieve gym Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. No charge is made for admission. The following day, Tuesday, Feb. 2 the locals travel to Marcellus for a rematch and a chance to avenge an earlier defeat at the hands of the Marcellus boys.

Travato, Coakley, Lagoe, and Woehr copped verdicts for Fulton and turned defeat into victory. After LaMay of Fulton was held to a draw by Leonard in a match that would have been scored for Fulton except for an official's error in calling an illegal hold, Central Square was overwhelming the locals by 23-7.

Then Travato immediately pinned Knight for his sixth consecutive win and fifth pin, Coakley pinned Dempsey and Lagoe decided White to pull Fulton within three points of the Square. The crowd went wild when Woehr pinned Paoline in the final match in a little over a minute to give Fulton its 25-23 victory.

A turning point in the match was when 160-lb. Lagoe, wrestling in the 182 class, turned the tables on White. White has heretofore been making a name for himself as a heavyweight for the Square.

In two exhibition matches Bock of Fulton decided Ray 7-5 while Fulton's Porter lost to Williams 2-1. Both Bock and Porter saw action as JayVees in beor and S. Sherman each rolled 514 for their teams. C. F. Avery 523 for the Scriba team.

P. Partelli with a 214 single and 561 total lead the scoring in the Battle Island League for the Pal Times' team. J. Arcadi passed out the groceries with a 203 single and 553 total for Bullards with teammates D. Bullard rolling 536 and T. Bullard 503. Bullards had the better line and took all four points with the Tasty Pizza team. High for Lagalbos was George Wolever with 500, and for Lagoes of Oswego, F. Kratonik with 504.

Don Davs blasted away to turn in games of 194, 192 and 197 for a 583 total for Millers in the Oswego County "B" league.

Pat Schneider followed the lead scoring in the women's classic league with 488 CLOSE behind Dorothy Churchill's 493. Shirley Potocnak came along with a 473 and Lenora Kelly rolled 460.

The total of the week was Allan Clark's games of 188, 269 and 201 for a 658 total and Harold Hopkins turned in games of 235, 204 and 200 for 639 in the Intercommunity league. Other high scores, P. McCarthy's 224, P. Holden 214/581 Jerry Allen 255, 201/587, Gary Ford 219 202/587.

the same evening. By virtue of a 17-5 victory the local JayVees made it two in a row. They defeated Mexico the previous week by 27-14.
