

Fulton shot selection could have been better in late going, ball just would not drop for Raiders. Fulton's Zoo Crew (cheering section) returned, cheered and behaved well. Fulton won J.V. prelim. 45-43, with Rob Parkhurst scoring 12 points. Raiders' host West Genesee (tied for first with C.S.) Friday night, J.V. action starts at 6:30 p.m.

INBOUND PASS— Jeff Kunzwiller [20] prepares to inbound this pass as Rick Van Buren [21] signals he is clear.

MERRITT ON THE DRIVE— Mark Merritt [10] wheels and drives towards the hoop as a trio of Redmen set up to block the way. Poor shooting from both the field and the foul line contributed to the Raiders 61-53 loss to Central Square.

Bodley Matmen Subdue ESM

The varsity grapplers conquered the Spartans from East Syracuse last Wednesday by the score of 32 to 21.

The highlight of the match was the outstanding performance of Pete Arcadi at 132 pounds. Pete, a junior, was filling in for the ailing Mark Shortsleeve and responded with a sparkling 14 to 2 victory.

Senior Co-Captain Don Borden just missed the "30

Second Pin Club" by four seconds as he turned in his usual outstanding performance.

Sophomore Ron LaBeef (105) and Lelan Rogers (117) remained undefeated as they both easily won.

Coach Woeller's JV team turned in another super performance as they pinned ESM's JV's 53 to 8. The JV team is undefeated with seven wins to its credit.

Varsity Wrestlers Remain Unbeaten

G.R.B.'s state-rated (12th) wrestlers travelled to Central Square last Friday and "out-slicked" the Redman 37 to 10. The win gave the matmen a 8-0 record.

Senior Co-Captain Mike Heagerty stunned the Central Square fans as he pinned Dave Fisher, who was undefeated. Mike was winning 13 to 0 when he showed the Redman grappler the lights for last time.

Sophomore Lelan Rogers joined the "30 Second Pin Club" as he pinned Central Square's highly touted Ken Van Antwerp in 27 seconds.

Greg Bailey won a thriller as he scored a near fall over his opponent with five seconds to go in the bout and won 6 to 5.

The JV's also won 52 to 7 to stay undefeated on the year. Frosh sensation Mike Narewski registered his seventh pin in eight dual meets to lead the team in that category.

*Central Square lost team point for unsportsman like conduct.

Wrestler of the Week

Lelan Rogers

Lelan receives this week's award for winning the Fulton Holiday Classic Tournament and for his 46 second pin over a JD opponent. Lelan is 10-0 with 7 pins for the season. While only a sophomore, he is rapidly working himself into a Section 3 contender. Last fall Lelan was a stalwart on the Raider defensive team and is expected to do well on the lacrosse field this spring.
