Double-ring ceremony held at Holy Family Church

Mary Ann Arduini and William Lee Chetney Sr. were united in marriage at Holy Family Church, Fulton, June 24, at 11 a.m. Father James Hayes officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie Ann Arduini of Fulton and the late Alfred John Arduini Sr. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Chetney, also of Fulton.

Given in marriage by her mother and brother Alfred John Arduini Jr., the bride wore a white satin bridal gown, with a sweetheart V-neckline, adorned with dropped pearls and tapered traditional sleeves. The gown was decorated with matching cut-work lace with a cathedral length cut-work lace train. Her veil was a beaded crown decorated with beaded ginsza. She carried an arrangement of white and peach roses.

Peggy Ann Hart of Oswego, friend of bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Valorie Elaine Story, niece of the bride, and Linda Ann Hyde of Fulton, sister of the groom.

The attendants wore peach-colored southern belle gowns carrying fans of peach and white roses. They wore matching floral pieces in their hair.

James Edward Rinaldo of Florida was the best man. Ushers included Paul John Arduini of Mexico, brother of the bride; Timothy Mark Chetney of Fulton, brother of the groom; William Lee Chetney Jr. of Hannibal, son of the groom. Jeremy Lee Chetney of Hannibal, son of the groom was the ring bearer.

The groom wore a white Astaire tuxedo with a peach rose. The ushers wore silver Astaire tuxedos with peach and white rose corsages.

The flower arrangements were made by the bride's sister-in-law Louann Arduini.

Joseph John Story of Fulton, brother-in-law of the bride, accompanied Dolores Walrath in the selections sung at the ceremony.

A wedding reception was held following the ceremony at Oswego Elks Club in Oswego. After the reception the couple flew to Florida for a week's honeymoon vacation.

The bride was graduated from G. Ray Bodley High School in 1983. She is currently employed by R&S Associates General Contractors, Inc. in Phoenix as the office manager.

The bridegroom was graduated from G. Ray Bodley High School in 1974. He is currently employed by CPS Electric in Oswego as an electrician of the IBEW Local Union 328.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lee Chetney Sr. will reside in Hannibal.
