

Fulton YMCA seeks 'treasures'

The Fulton Family YMCA is seeking donations for an auction to be held in spring 1991. "Items may be new or old, but must be in useful, functional condition," stated project chairman Judy Young. "Items no longer useful to person may be just the 'treasure' someone else wants or needs. We ask that those wishing to donate items for the auction bring them to the Fulton Family YMCA at 235 Oneida Street, Fulton."

The Fulton Family YMCA is open Monday through Friday from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and Sunday, 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. "If someone has something they wish to donate and has difficulty getting it to the Y, arrangements can be made for the item to be picked up," noted Mrs. Young.

"A date for the auction has not been selected yet, but it will be sometime in May. We hope everyone will get into the spirit of things and help us fill our 'treasure chest' so that we can have an exceptional auction," she said.

"We have already received some very nice items, with many more promised," continued Mrs. Young. "We will keep everyone posted as our coffers fill up. Auctions are not only beneficial, but entertaining and fun for the whole family," she said. "We hope that everyone will join us in May for this very special event to benefit the Fulton Family YMCA."

The Fulton Family YMCA is a member agency of the United Way of Greater Fulton, Inc., and the New York State Division For Youth.

New business or practical joke?

Ken and Freda Collins of E. Broadway returned from a Florida trip Sunday, Jan. 13, to find themselves in the used Christmas tree business, with a "red tag sale" set up on their front lawn. Friends say Collins is a bit of a practical joker himself, and was being "paid back" for similar deeds in the past. Some of the perpetrators are shown at right, with their backs to the camera.

On the block
at the YMCA

Judy Young of the Fulton YMCA and Executive Director Joe DeGroot display some of the items, including two copy machines, that will be auctioned in the spring to raise funds for the Y. Items to be donated may be dropped off at the YMCA Monday through Friday from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturdays 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and Sundays 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
