Winter . . .

There's probably no sense thinking about it yet . . .

unless you're in business!

If you are in business, you need to be prepared well in advance, and part of those preparations involve effective advertising and marketing. The Valley News helps local business focus the consumer's attention on their potential pre-winter purchasing through its annual "Winter's on the Way" special section. Thousands of dollars will be spent on pre-winter expenditures for homes, cars, clothes, services, recreation, and more. Reach an audience that will be spending many of those dollars through this attention-getting special.
