

Know all Men by these Presents:

That we George N. Salisbury former and bank clerk of the town of Sandy Creek Oswego Co. N.Y. as principal and Frances M. Bulkeley as sureties are held and firmly bound unto the People of the State of New York in the sum of Three Thousand Eight Hundred (3800) Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said people: To which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals.

Dated the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ninety six of the estate of Emma Purst deceased, has lately made application to the Surrogate of the County of Oswego for authority to mortgage, lease, or sell so much of the real estate of the said Emma Purst deceased, as shall be necessary to pay her debts; and whereas, such proceedings in due form of law have been thereupon had that the said Surrogate is about to order a sale of so much of the real estate whereof the said Emma Purst deceased, died seized as shall be sufficient to pay the debts of the said deceased, which the Surrogate has entered in his books as valid and subsisting pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided and has appointed the said George N. Salisbury to make such sale.

Now the conditions of the above obligation are such that if the said George N. Salisbury have the premises appointed to make such sale, instead of the said James Purst the administrator of the estate of the said Emma Purst deceased, as aforesaid shall faithfully perform the duties imposed upon him by said decree or order, and pay all the money arising from such mortgage, lease or sale so to be ordered as aforesaid, and shall deliver all securities taken by him thereupon, to the said Surrogate within twenty days after the same shall have been received by him, and shall account for all money received by him whenever he is required so to do by a court of competent jurisdiction, then this obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
