

Know all Men by these Presents,

That we William J. Longy as principal and James Cole and Edward Quirk

as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the People of the State of New York, in the sum of Three Hundred ($300) dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said people: To which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Scaled with our seals.

Dated the 17th day of April 1897

Witness, the above bounden John Truitt Administrator of the estate of Ann Truitt late of the Town of Volney in the County of Oswego, New York, deceased, has lately applied to the Surrogate's Court of the County of Oswego, New York, for authority to dispose, by mortgage, lease or sale, of so much of the real property of the said Ann Truitt deceased, as shall be necessary to pay her debts and funeral expenses; and whereas such proceedings in due form of law have been thereupon had, that the Surrogate of said county has decreed a sale of so much of the real property whereof the said

decendent died seized, as shall be necessary to pay the debts and funeral expenses of said decendent

Now, the Condition of this obligation is such, that if the said William J. Longy shall faithfully perform the duties imposed upon him by said decree, and shall pay into the Surrogate's Court of said County of Oswego, within twenty days after the receipt thereof by him all money arising from any such sale, and shall deliver to the Surrogate of said County of Oswego within the same time, all the securities taken thereupon, and shall account for all money received by him whenever he is required to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
