Know all Men by these Presents,

That we William J. Baker as principal and we James J. Halligan and Edward Driscoll

as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the People of the State of New York, in the sum of Eight-hundred & forty dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said people: To which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals.

Dated the 24 day of June, 1898

Whereas, the above bounden William J. Baker Administrator of the goods, Chattels & credits of Emma S. Baker

late of the Village of Fulton in the County of Oswego, New York, deceased, has lately applied to the Surrogate's Court of the County of Oswego, New York, for authority to dispose, by mortgage, lease or sale, of so much of the real property of the said Emma S. Baker, deceased, as shall be necessary to pay her debts and funeral expenses; and whereas such proceedings in due form of law have been thereupon had, that the Surrogate of said county has decreed a mortgage of so much of the real property whereof the said decedent died seized, as shall be necessary to pay the debts and funeral expenses of said decedent.

Now, the Condition of this obligation is such, that if the said William J. Baker shall faithfully perform the duties imposed upon him by said decree, and shall pay into the Surrogate's Court of said County of Oswego, within twenty days after the receipt thereof by him all money arising from any such mortgage, and shall deliver to the Surrogate of said County of Oswego within the same time, all the securities taken thereupon, and shall account for all money received by him whenever he is required to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
