

Know all Men by these Presents.

That we John B. Higgins as principal and Michael Keeler and J. D. Higgins as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the People of the State of New York, in the sum of Two Hundred and fifty dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said people: To which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Scaled with our seals.

Dated the 22 day of July 1899

WHEREAS, the above bounden John B. Higgins has been duly appointed by the Surrogate's Court of the County of Oswego by an order thereof made the 11th day of July 1899, as a freeholder to sell the real estate of one E. A. Cooke deceased, as shall be necessary to pay his debts and funeral expenses; and whereas such proceedings in due form of law have been thereupon had, that the Surrogate of said county has decreed a sale of so much of the real property whereof the said decedent died seized, as shall be necessary to pay the debts and funeral expenses of said decedent.

Now, the Condition of this obligation is such, that if the said John B. Higgins shall faithfully perform the duties imposed upon him by said decree, and shall pay into the Surrogate's Court of said County of Oswego, within twenty days after the receipt thereof by him all money arising from any such sale, and shall deliver to the Surrogate of said County of Oswego within the same time, all the securities taken thereupon, and shall account for all money received by him whenever he is required to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
