

Know all Men by these Presents,

That we Jay B. Coates of Williamstown N.Y. Principal and John S. Clelland of Amboy N.Y. and John H. Moon of Amboy N.Y.

as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the People of the State of New York, in the sum of Two Hundred dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said people: To which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Scaled with our seals.

Dated the 12th day of November 1900

Whereas, the above bounden Jay B. Coates Administrator of the estate of Martin Stearns late of the Town of Amboy in the County of Oswego, New York, deceased, has lately applied to the Surrogate's Court of the County of Oswego, New York, for authority to dispose, by mortgage, lease or sale, of so much of the real property of the said Martin Stearns, deceased, as shall be necessary to pay his debts and funeral expenses; and whereas such proceedings in due form of law have been thereupon had, that the Surrogate of said county has decreed a sale of so much of the real property whereof the said decedent died seized, as shall be necessary to pay the debts and funeral expenses of said decedent.

Now, the Condition of this obligation is such, that if the said Jay B. Coates shall faithfully perform the duties imposed upon him by said decree, and shall pay into the Surrogate's Court of said County of Oswego, within twenty days after the receipt thereof by him all money arising from any such sale, and shall deliver to the Surrogate of said County of Oswego, within the same time, all the securities taken thereupon, and shall account for all money received by him whenever he is required to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
