

Know all Men by these Presents,

That we Joseph F. Baldwin and Franklin D. Tift as principals and Albert E. Sherman and Melvin D. Harriman

as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the People of the State of New York, in the sum of Ten Hundred dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, to be paid to the said people: To which payment well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our and each of our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Sealed with our seals.

Dated the 20th day of February 1904

Whereas, the above bounden Joseph F. Baldwin and Franklin D. Tift, as Administrators of the Goods, Chattels & Credits of Elery Crandall late of the Town of Baylston in the County of Oswego, New York, deceased, has lately applied to the Surrogate's Court of the County of Oswego, New York, for authority to dispose, by mortgage, lease or sale, of so much of the real property of the said Elery Crandall, deceased, as shall be necessary to pay his debts and funeral expenses; and whereas such proceedings in due form of law have been thereupon had, that the Surrogate of said county has decreed a sale of so much of the real property whereof the said decendent died seized, as shall be necessary to pay the debts and funeral expenses of said decendent.

Now, the Condition of this obligation is such, that if the said Joseph F. Baldwin and Franklin D. Tift shall faithfully perform the duties imposed upon them by said decree, and shall pay into the Surrogate's Court of said County of Oswego, within twenty days after the receipt thereof by the said Elery Crandall money arising from any such sale, and shall deliver to the Surrogate of said County of Oswego within the same time, all the securities taken thereupon, and shall account for all money received by them, whenever they are required to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction; then this obligation to be void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
