

J. J.

The People of the State of New York in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred in all to whom their power shall come in any concern said Granting Sheweth that on the twentieth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty three at Richland in the County of Orange before Robert Mayson Esquire Sheriff of our said County the last will and testament of David Easton late of New Haven in said County deceased, in copy of which is hereunto inclosed may be seen and is as follows and also and of his wife Sarah the said deceased being while living and at the time of his death good and lawful in every within this State by me and others The giving and executing of the said will and the granting of administration of all and singular the said goods chattels and credits and also the auditing and clearing up the said deceased's accounts & things doth belong unto us. The administration of all and singular the goods chattels and credits of the deceased in any way concerning his will I granted unto Nathaniel P. Easton and Henry Chapin the executors in the said will named & they being first duly sworn will and faithfully to administer the same and that they would to the best of their ability make and exhibit or cause to be made and exhibited into the office of the Sheriff of the County of Orange a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the said goods chattels and credits before us at the expiration of six calendar months from the date hereof and also to render a just and true account thereof in such manner as required See testimony which we have examined the seal of office of our Sheriff of of our said County of Orange to be hereunto affixed Witness Robert Mayson Esquire Sheriff of our said County at Richland in said County the twentieth day of September in the year first aforesaid and of our Independence the forty eighth to the day done