

The People of the State of New York, by the Grace of God free and Independent. To all to whom these presents shall come or may concern. Greeting. Know Ye that at the Town of Beekmantown in the County of Orange on the twelfth day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine before Joseph W. Kelme Esquire Surrogate of our said County the last will and testament of John Henry Van Cappellen deceased (a copy whereof is herewith annexed) was proved and is now approved and allowed of by us and the said deceased having whilst he lived and at the time of his death goods, chattels or credits within this state, by means whereof the proving and registering the said will and granting administration of all and singular the said goods, chattels and credits, and also the auditing allowing and final discharging the account thereof doth belong unto us. The administration of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased and any was concerning the said will is granted unto Cyrus French his being first duly sworn well and faithfully to administer the same and to make and exhibit a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the said goods, chattels and credits and also to render a just and true account thereof when thereunto required.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Seal of Office of our said Surrogate to be herewith affixed. Witness Joseph W.

Kelme Esquire Surrogate of the said County at the Town of Beekmantown aforesaid the 21st day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine and of our Independence the fifty fourth
