

The People of the State of New York,

To Ann Whalen & Julia U. Whalen
of Redfield, Oswego Co., N.Y. SEND GREETING:

Whereas, Patrick Whalen as is alleged, lately died intestate, being at or immediately previous to his death, an inhabitant of, or having left assets which then were or have since come within the County of Oswego, by means whereof the ordering and granting administration of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits of which the said intestate died possessed, and also the auditing, allowing and final discharging the account thereof, do belong unto our Surrogate of the County of Oswego; And we, being desirous that the Goods, Chattels and Credits of the said intestate shall be well and faithfully administered, applied and disposed of, DO GRANT unto you, the said

Ann Whalen and Julia A. Whalen full power, by these Presents, to administer and faithfully dispose of all and singular the said Goods, Chattels and Credits; to ask, demand, recover and receive the debts which unto the said intestate, whilst living, and at the time of his death, did belong; and to pay the debts which the said intestate did owe as far as such Goods, Chattels and Credits will thereto extend, and the law requires; hereby requiring you to make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits of the said intestate, within a reasonable time, and to return a duplicate thereof to our Surrogate of the County of Oswego, within three months of the date of these Presents; and if further personal property or assets of any kind not mentioned in any inventory, that shall have been so made, shall come to your possession or knowledge, to make or cause to be made, in like manner, a true and perfect inventory thereof, within two months after discovery thereof.

And we do by these Presents, depute, constitute and appoint you, the said
Ann Whalen and Julia A. Whalen
Administrators of all and singular the Goods, Chattels and Credits which were of the said Patrick Whalen deceased.
